[H. R. 7837.]

An Act To provide for the establishment of Federal reserve banks, to furnish an elastic currency, to afford means of rediscounting commercial paper, to establish a more effective supervision of banking in the United States, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the short title of this Act shall be the "Federal Reserve Act."

Wherever the word "bank" is used in this Act, the word shall be held to include State bank, banking association, and trust company, except where national banks or Federal reserve banks are specifically referred to.

The terms "national bank" and "national banking association" used in this Act shall be held to be synonymous and interchangeable. The term "member bank" shall be held to mean any national bank, State bank, or bank or trust company which has become a member of one of the reserve banks created by this Act. The term "board" shall be held to mean Federal Reserve Board; the term "district" shall be held to mean Federal reserve district; the term "reserve bank" shall be held to mean Federal reserve bank.

FEDERAL RESERVE DISTRICTS.

SEC. 2. As soon as practicable, the Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of Agriculture and the Comptroller of the Currency, acting as "The Reserve Bank Organization Committee," shall designate not less than eight nor more than twelve cities to be known as Federal reserve cities, and shall divide the continental United States, excluding Alaska, into districts, each district to contain only one of such Federal reserve cities. The determination of said organization committee shall not be subject to review except by the Federal Reserve Board when organized: Provided, That the districts shall be apportioned with due regard to the convenience and customary course of business and shall not necessarily be coterminous with any State or States. The districts thus created may be readjusted and new districts may from time to time be created by the Federal Reserve Board, not to exceed twelve in all. Such districts shall be known as Federal reserve districts and may be designated by number. A majority of the organization committee shall constitute a quorum with authority to act.

Said organization committee shall be authorized to employ counsel and expert aid, to take testimony, to send for persons and papers, to administer oaths, and to make such investigation as may be deemed necessary by the said committee in determining the reserve districts and in designating the cities within such districts where such Federal reserve banks shall be severally located. The said committee shall supervise the organization in each of the cities designated of a Federal reserve bank, which shall include in its title the name of the city in which it is situated, as "Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago."

Under regulations to be prescribed by the organization committee, every national banking association in the United States is hereby required, and every eligible bank in the United States and every trust company within the District of Columbia, is hereby authorized to signify in writing, within sixty days after the passage of this Act, its acceptance of the terms and provisions hereof. When the organization committee shall have designated the cities in which Federal reserve banks are to be organized, and fixed the geographical limits of the Federal reserve districts, every national banking association within that district shall be required within thirty days after notice from the organization committee, to subscribe to the capital stock of such Federal reserve bank in a sum equal to six per centum of the paid-up capital stock and surplus of such bank, one-sixth of the subscription to be payable on call of the organization committee or of the Federal Reserve Board, one-sixth within three months and one-sixth within six months thereafter, and the remainder of the subscription, or any part thereof, shall be subject to call when deemed necessary by the Federal Reserve Board, said payments to be in gold or gold certificates.

The shareholders of every Federal reserve bank shall be held individually responsible, equally and ratably, and not one for another, for all contracts, debts, and engagements of such bank to the extent of the amount of their subscriptions to such stock at the par value thereof in addition to the amount subscribed, whether such subscriptions have been paid up in whole or in part, under the provisions of this Act.

Any national bank failing to signify its acceptance of the terms of this Act within the sixty days aforesaid, shall cease to act as a reserve agent, upon thirty days' notice, to be given within the discretion of the said organization committee or of the Federal Reserve Board.

Should any national banking association in the United States now organized fail within one year after the passage of this Act to become a member bank or fail to comply with any of the provisions of this Act applicable thereto, all of the rights, privileges, and franchises of such association granted to it under the national-bank Act, or under the provisions of this Act, shall be thereby forfeited. Any noncompliance with or violation of this Act shall, however, be determined and adjudged by any court of the United States of competent jurisdiction in a suit brought for that purpose in the district or territory in which such bank is located, under direction of the Federal Reserve Board, by the Comptroller of the Currency in his own name before the association shall be declared dissolved. In cases of such noncompliance or violation, other than the failure to become a member bank under the provisions of this Act, every director who participated in or assented to the same shall be held liable in his personal or individual capacity for all damages which said bank, its shareholders, or any other person shall have sustained in consequence of such violation.

Such dissolution shall not take away or impair any remedy against such corporation, its stockholders or officers, for any liability or penalty which shall have been previously incurred.

Should the subscriptions by banks to the stock of said Federal reserve banks or any one or more of them be, in the judgment of the organization committee, insufficient to provide the amount of capital required therefor, then and in that event the said organization committee may, under conditions and regulations to be prescribed by it, offer to public subscription at par such an amount of stock in said Federal reserve banks, or any one or more of them, as said committee shall determine, subject to the same conditions as to payment and stock liability as provided for member banks.

No individual, copartnership, or corporation other than a member bank of its district shall be permitted to subscribe for or to hold at any time more than $25,000 par value of stock in any Federal reserve bank. Such stock shall be known as public stock and may be transferred on the books of the Federal reserve bank by the chairman of the board of directors of such bank.

Should the total subscriptions by banks and the public to the stock of said Federal reserve banks, or any one or more of them, be, in the judgment of the organization committee, insufficient to provide the amount of capital required therefor, then and in that event the said organization committee shall allot to the United States such an amount of said stock as said committee shall determine. Said United States stock shall be paid for at par out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and shall be held by the Secretary of the Treasury and disposed of for the benefit of the United States in such manner, at such times, and at such price, not less than par, as the Secretary of the Treasury shall determine.

Stock not held by member banks shall not be entitled to voting power.

The Federal Reserve Board is hereby empowered to adopt and promulgate rules and regulations governing the transfers of said stock.

No Federal reserve bank shall commence business with a subscribed capital less than $4,000,000. The organization of reserve districts and Federal reserve cities shall not be construed as changing the present status of reserve cities and central reserve cities, except in so far as this Act changes the amount of reserves that may be carried with approved reserve agents located therein. The organization committee shall have power to appoint such assistants and incur such expenses in carrying out the provisions of this Act as it shall deem necessary, and such expenses shall be payable by the Treasurer of the United States upon voucher approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, and the sum of $100,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the payment of such expenses.

BRANCH OFFICES.

SEC. 3. Each Federal reserve bank shall establish branch banks within the Federal reserve district in which it is located and may do so in the district of any Federal reserve bank which may have been suspended. Such branches shall be operated by a board of directors under rules and regulations approved by the Federal Reserve Board. Directors of branch banks shall possess the same qualifications as directors of the Federal reserve banks. Four of said directors shall be selected by the reserve bank and three by the Federal Reserve Board, and they shall hold office during the pleasure, respectively, of the parent bank and the Federal Reserve Board. The reserve bank shall designate one of the directors as manager.

FEDERAL RESERVE BANKS.

SEC. 4. When the organization committee shall have established Federal reserve districts as provided in section two of this Act, a certificate shall be filed with the Comptroller of the Currency showing the geographical limits of such districts and the Federal reserve city designated in each of such districts. The Comptroller of the Currency shall thereupon cause to be forwarded to each national bank located in each district, and to such other banks declared to be eligible by the organization committee which may apply therefor, an application blank in form to be approved by the organization committee, which blank shall contain a resolution to be adopted by the board of directors of each bank executing such application, authorizing a subscription to the capital stock of the Federal reserve bank organizing in that district in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

When the minimum amount of capital stock prescribed by this Act for the organization of any Federal reserve bank shall have been subscribed and allotted, the organization committee shall designate any five banks of those whose applications have been received, to execute a certificate of organization, and thereupon the banks so designated shall, under their seals, make an organization certificate which shall specifically state the name of such Federal reserve bank, the territorial extent of the district over which the operations of such Federal reserve bank are to be carried on, the city and State in which said bank is to be located, the amount of capital stock and the number of shares into which the same is divided, the name and place of doing business of each bank executing such certificate, and of all banks which have subscribed to the capital stock of such Federal reserve bank and the number of shares subscribed by each, and the fact that the certificate is made to enable those banks executing same, and all banks which have subscribed or may thereafter subscribe to the capital stock of such Federal reserve bank, to avail themselves of the advantages of this Act.

The said organization certificate shall be acknowledged before a judge of some court of record or notary public; and shall be, together with the acknowledgment thereof, authenticated by the seal of such court, or notary, transmitted to the Comptroller of the Currency, who shall file, record and carefully preserve the same in his office.

Upon the filing of such certificate with the Comptroller of the Currency as aforesaid, the said Federal reserve bank shall become a body corporate and as such, and in the name designated in such organization certificate, shall have power—

First. To adopt and use a corporate seal.

Second. To have succession for a period of twenty years from its organization unless it is sooner dissolved by an Act of Congress, or unless its franchise becomes forfeited by some violation of law.

Third. To make contracts.

Fourth. To sue and be sued, complain and defend, in any court of law or equity.

Fifth. To appoint by its board of directors, such officers and employees as are not otherwise provided for in this Act, to define their duties, require bonds of them and fix the penalty thereof, and to dismiss at pleasure such officers or employees.

Sixth. To prescribe by its board of directors, by-laws not inconsistent with law, regulating the manner in which its general business may be conducted, and the privileges granted to it by law may be exercised and enjoyed.

Seventh. To exercise by its board of directors, or duly authorized officers or agents, all powers specifically granted by the provisions of this Act and such incidental powers as shall be necessary to carry on the business of banking within the limitations prescribed by this Act.

Eighth. Upon deposit with the Treasurer of the United States of any bonds of the United States in the manner provided by existing law relating to national banks, to receive from the Comptroller of the Currency circulating notes in blank, registered and countersigned as provided by law, equal in amount to the par value of the bonds so deposited, such notes to be issued under the same conditions and provisions of law as relate to the issue of circulating notes of national banks secured by bonds of the United States bearing the circulating privilege, except that the issue of such notes shall not be limited to the capital stock of such Federal reserve bank.

But no Federal reserve bank shall transact any business except such as is incidental and necessarily preliminary to its organization until it has been authorized by the Comptroller of the Currency to commence business under the provisions of this Act.

Every Federal reserve bank shall be conducted under the supervision and control of a board of directors.

The board of directors shall perform the duties usually appertaining to the office of directors of banking associations and all such duties as are prescribed by law.

Said board shall administer the affairs of said bank fairly and impartially and without discrimination in favor of or against any member bank or banks and shall, subject to the provisions of law and the orders of the Federal Reserve Board, extend to each member bank such discounts, advancements and accommodations as may be safely and reasonably made with due regard for the claims and demands of other member banks.

Such board of directors shall be selected as hereinafter specified and shall consist of nine members, holding office for three years, and divided into three classes, designated as classes A, B, and C.

Class A shall consist of three members, who shall be chosen by and be representative of the stock-holding banks.

Class B shall consist of three members, who at the time of their election shall be actively engaged in their district in commerce, agriculture or some other industrial pursuit.

Class C shall consist of three members who shall be designated by the Federal Reserve Board. When the necessary subscriptions to the capital stock have been obtained for the organization of any Federal reserve bank, the Federal Reserve Board shall appoint the class C directors and shall designate one of such directors as chairman of the board to be selected. Pending the designation of such chairman, the organization committee shall exercise the powers and duties appertaining to the office of chairman in the organization of such Federal reserve bank.

No Senator or Representative in Congress shall be a member of the Federal Reserve Board or an officer or a director of a Federal reserve bank.

No director of class B shall be an officer, director, or employee of any bank.

No director of class C shall be an officer, director, employee, or stockholder of any bank.

Directors of class A and class B shall be chosen in the following manner:

The chairman of the board of directors of the Federal reserve bank of the district in which the bank is situated or, pending the appointment of such chairman, the organization committee shall classify the member banks of the district into three general groups or divisions. Each group shall contain as nearly as may be one-third of the aggregate number of the member banks of the district and shall consist, as nearly as may be, of banks of similar capitalization. The groups shall be designated by number by the chairman.

At a regularly called meeting of the board of directors of each member bank in the district it shall elect by ballot a district reserve elector and shall certify his name to the chairman of the board of directors of the Federal reserve bank of the district. The chairman shall make lists of the district reserve electors thus named by banks in each of the aforesaid three groups and shall transmit one list to each elector in each group.

Each member bank shall be permitted to nominate to the chairman one candidate for director of class A and one candidate for director of class B. The candidates so nominated shall be listed by the chairman, indicating by whom nominated, and a copy of said list shall, within fifteen days after its completion, be furnished by the chairman to each elector.

Every elector shall, within fifteen days after the receipt of the said list, certify to the chairman his first, second, and other choices of a director of class A and class B, respectively, upon a preferential ballot, on a form furnished by the chairman of the board of directors of the Federal reserve bank of the district. Each elector shall make a cross opposite the name of the first, second, and other choices for a director of class A and for a director of class B, but shall not vote more than one choice for any one candidate.

Any candidate having a majority of all votes cast in the column of first choice shall be declared elected. If no candidate have a majority of all the votes in the first column, then there shall be added together the votes cast by the electors for such candidates in the second column and the votes cast for the several candidates in the first column. If any candidate then have a majority of the electors voting, by adding together the first and second choices, he shall be declared elected. If no candidate have a majority of electors voting when the first and second choices shall have been added, then the votes cast in the third column for other choices shall be added together in like manner, and the candidate then having the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. An immediate report of election shall be declared.

Class C directors shall be appointed by the Federal Reserve Board. They shall have been for at least two years residents of the district for which they are appointed, one of whom shall be designated by said board as chairman of the board of directors of the Federal reserve bank and as "Federal reserve agent." He shall be a person of tested banking experience; and in addition to his duties as chairman of the board of directors of the Federal reserve bank he shall be required to maintain under regulations to be established by the Federal Reserve Board a local office of said board on the premises of the Federal reserve bank. He shall make regular reports to the Federal Reserve Board, and shall act as its official representative for the performance of the functions conferred upon it by this Act. He shall receive an annual compensation to be fixed by the Federal Reserve Board and paid monthly by the Federal reserve bank to which he is designated. One of the directors of class C, who shall be a person of tested banking experience, shall be appointed by the Federal Reserve Board as deputy chairman and deputy Federal reserve agent to exercise the powers of the chairman of the board and Federal reserve agent in case of absence or disability of his principal.

Directors of Federal reserve banks shall receive, in addition to any compensation otherwise provided, a reasonable allowance for necessary expenses in attending meetings of their respective boards, which amount shall be paid by the respective Federal reserve banks. Any compensation that may be provided by boards of directors of Federal reserve banks for directors, officers or employees shall be subject to the approval of the Federal Reserve Board.

The Reserve Bank Organization Committee may, in organizing Federal reserve banks, call such meetings of bank directors in the several districts as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act, and may exercise the functions herein conferred upon the chairman of the board of directors of each Federal reserve bank pending the complete organization of such bank.

At the first meeting of the full board of directors of each Federal reserve bank, it shall be the duty of the directors of classes A, B and C, respectively, to designate one of the members of each class whose term of office shall expire in one year from the first of January nearest to date of such meeting, one whose term of office shall expire at the end of two years from said date, and one whose term of office shall expire at the end of three years from said date. Thereafter every director of a Federal reserve bank chosen as hereinbefore provided shall hold office for a term of three years. Vacancies that may occur in the several classes of directors of Federal reserve banks may be filled in the manner provided for the original selection of such directors, such appointees to hold office for the unexpired terms of their predecessors.

STOCK ISSUES; INCREASE AND DECREASE OF CAPITAL.

SEC. 5. The capital stock of each Federal reserve bank shall be divided into shares of $100 each. The outstanding capital stock shall be increased from time to time as member banks increase their capital stock and surplus or as additional banks become members, and may be decreased as member banks reduce their capital stock or surplus or cease to be members. Shares of the capital stock of Federal reserve banks owned by member banks shall not be transferred or hypothecated. When a member bank increases its capital stock or surplus, it shall thereupon subscribe for an additional amount of capital stock of the Federal reserve bank of its district equal to six per centum of the said increase, one-half of said subscription to be paid in the manner hereinbefore provided for original subscription, and one-half subject to call of the Federal Reserve Board. A bank applying for stock in a Federal reserve bank at any time after the organization thereof must subscribe for an amount of the capital stock of the Federal reserve bank equal to six per centum of the paid-up capital stock and surplus of said applicant bank, paying therefor its par value plus one-half of one per centum a month from the period of the last dividend. When the capital stock of any Federal reserve bank shall have been increased either on account of the increase of capital stock of member banks or on account of the increase in the number of member banks, the board of directors shall cause to be executed a certificate to the Comptroller of the Currency showing the increase in capital stock, the amount paid in, and by whom paid. When a member bank reduces its capital stock it shall surrender a proportionate amount of its holdings in the capital of said Federal reserve bank, and when a member bank voluntarily liquidates it shall surrender all of its holdings of the capital stock of said Federal reserve bank and be released from its stock subscription not previously called. In either case the shares surrendered shall be canceled and the member bank shall receive in payment therefor, under regulations to be prescribed by the Federal Reserve Board, a sum equal to its cash-paid subscriptions on the shares surrendered and one-half of one per centum a month from the period of the last dividend, not to exceed the book value thereof, less any liability of such member bank to the Federal reserve bank.

SEC. 6. If any member bank shall be declared insolvent and a receiver appointed therefor, the stock held by it in said Federal reserve bank shall be canceled, without impairment of its liability, and all cash-paid subscriptions on said stock, with one-half of one per centum per month from the period of last dividend, not to exceed the book value thereof, shall be first applied to all debts of the insolvent member bank to the Federal reserve bank, and the balance, if any, shall be paid to the receiver of the insolvent bank. Whenever the capital stock of a Federal reserve bank is reduced, either on account of a reduction in capital stock of any member bank or of the liquidation or insolvency of such bank, the board of directors shall cause to be executed a certificate to the Comptroller of the Currency showing such reduction of capital stock and the amount repaid to such bank.

DIVISION OF EARNINGS.

SEC. 7. After all necessary expenses of a Federal reserve bank have been paid or provided for, the stockholders shall be entitled to receive an annual dividend of six per centum on the paid-in capital stock, which dividend shall be cumulative. After the aforesaid dividend claims have been fully met, all the net earnings shall be paid to the United States as a franchise tax, except that one-half of such net earnings shall be paid into a surplus fund until it shall amount to forty per centum of the paid-in capital stock of such bank.

The net earnings derived by the United States from Federal reserve banks shall, in the discretion of the Secretary, be used to supplement the gold reserve held against outstanding United States notes, or shall be applied to the reduction of the outstanding bonded indebtedness of

Should a Federal reserve bank be dissolved or go into liquidation, any surplus remaining, after the payment of all debts, dividend requirements as hereinbefore provided, and the par value of the stock, shall be paid to and become the property of the United States and shall be similarly applied.

Federal reserve banks, including the capital stock and surplus therein, and the income derived therefrom shall be exempt from Federal, State, and local taxation, except taxes upon real estate.

SEC. 8. Section fifty-one hundred and fifty-four, United States Revised Statutes, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Any bank incorporated by special law of any State or of the United States or organized under the general laws of any State or of the United States and having an unimpaired capital sufficient to entitle it to become a national banking association under the provisions of the existing laws may, by the vote of the shareholders owning not less than fifty-one per centum of the capital stock of such bank or banking association, with the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency be converted into a national banking association, with any name approved by the Comptroller of the Currency:

Provided, however, That said conversion shall not be in contravention of the State law. In such case the articles of association and organization certificate may be executed by a majority of the directors of the bank or banking institution, and the certificate shall declare that the owners of fifty-one per centum of the capital stock have authorized the directors to make such certificate and to change or convert the bank or banking institution into a national association. A majority of the directors, after executing the articles of association and the organization certificate, shall have power to execute all other papers and to do whatever may be required to make its organization perfect and complete as a national association. The shares of any such bank may continue to be for the same amount each as they were before the conversion, and the directors may continue to be directors of the association until others are elected or appointed in accordance with the provisions of the statutes of the United States. When the Comptroller has given to such bank or banking association a certificate that the provisions of this Act have been complied with, such bank or banking association, and all its stockholders, officers, and employees, shall have the same powers and privileges, and shall be subject to the same duties, liabilities, and regulations, in all respects, as shall have been prescribed by the Federal Reserve Act and by the national banking Act for associations originally organized as national banking associations.

it may prescribe, subject to the provisions of this section, may permit the applying bank to become a stockholder in the Federal reserve bank of the district in which the applying bank is located. Whenever the organization committee or the Federal Reserve Board shall permit the applying bank to become a stockholder in the Federal reserve bank of the district, stock shall be issued and paid for under the rules and regulations in this Act provided for national banks which become stockholders in Federal reserve banks.

The organization committee or the Federal Reserve Board shall establish by-laws for the general government of its conduct in acting upon applications made by the State banks and banking associations and trust companies for stock ownership in Federal reserve banks. Such by-laws shall require applying banks not organized under Federal law to comply with the reserve and capital requirements and to submit to the examination and regulations prescribed by the organization committee or by the Federal Reserve Board. No applying bank shall be admitted to membership in a Federal reserve bank unless it possesses a paid-up unimpaired capital sufficient to entitle it to become a national banking association in the place where it is situated, under the provisions of the national banking Act.

Any bank becoming a member of a Federal reserve bank under the provisions of this section shall, in addition to the regulations and restrictions hereinbefore provided, be required to conform to the provisions of law imposed on the national banks respecting the limitation of liability which may be incurred by any person, firm, or corporation to such banks, the prohibition against making purchase of or loans on stock of such banks, and the withdrawal or impairment of capital, or the payment of unearned dividends, and to such rules and regulations as the Federal Reserve Board may, in pursuance thereof, prescribe.

Such banks, and the officers, agents, and employees thereof, shall also be subject to the provisions of and to the penalties prescribed by sections fifty-one hundred and ninety-eight, fifty-two hundred, fifty-two hundred and one, and fifty-two hundred and eight, and fifty-two hundred and nine of the Revised Statutes. The member banks shall also be required to make reports of the conditions and of the payments of dividends to the comptroller, as provided in sections fifty-two hundred and eleven and fifty-two hundred and twelve of the Revised Statutes, and shall be subject to the penalties prescribed by section fifty-two hundred and thirteen for the failure to make such report.

If at any time it shall appear to the Federal Reserve Board that a member bank has failed to comply with the provisions of this section or the regulations of the Federal Reserve Board, it shall be within the power of the said board, after hearing, to require such bank to surrender its stock in the Federal reserve bank; upon such surrender the Federal reserve bank shall pay the cash-paid subscriptions to the said stock with interest at the rate of one-half of one per centum per month, computed from the last dividend, if earned, not to exceed the book value thereof, less any liability to said Federal reserve bank, except the subscription liability not previously called, which shall be canceled, and said Federal reserve bank shall, upon notice from the Federal Reserve Board, be required to suspend said bank from further privileges of membership, and shall within thirty days of such notice

The five members of the Federal Reserve Board appointed by the President and confirmed as aforesaid shall devote their entire time to the business of the Federal Reserve Board and shall each receive an annual salary of $12,000, payable monthly together with actual necessary traveling expenses, and the Comptroller of the Currency, as ex officio member of the Federal Reserve Board, shall, in addition to the salary now paid him as Comptroller of the Currency, receive the sum of $7,000 annually for his services as a member of said Board.

The members of said board, the Secretary of the Treasury, the Assistant Secretaries of the Treasury, and the Comptroller of the Currency shall be ineligible during the time they are in office and for two years thereafter to hold any office, position, or employment in any member bank. The governor of the Federal Reserve Board, subject to its supervision, shall be the active executive officer. The first meeting of the Federal Reserve Board shall be held in Washington, District of Columbia, as soon as may be after the passage of this Act, at a date to be fixed by the Reserve Bank Organization Committee. The President shall have power to fill all vacancies that may happen on the Federal Reserve Board during the recess of the Senate, by granting commissions which shall expire thirty days after the next session of the Senate convenes.

SEC. 11. The Federal Reserve Board shall be authorized and empowered:

(a) To examine at its discretion the accounts, books and affairs of each Federal reserve bank and of each member bank and to require such statements and reports as it may deem necessary. The said board shall publish once each week a statement showing the condition of each Federal reserve bank and a consolidated statement for all Federal reserve banks. Such statements shall show in detail the assets and liabilities of the Federal reserve banks, single and combined, and shall furnish full information regarding the character of the money held as reserve and the amount, nature and maturities of the paper and other investments owned or held by Federal reserve banks.

(b) To permit, or, on the affirmative vote of at least five members of the Reserve Board to require Federal reserve banks to rediscount the discounted paper of other Federal reserve banks at rates of interest to be fixed by the Federal Reserve Board.

NOTE ISSUES.

SEC. 16. Federal reserve notes, to be issued at the discretion of the Federal Reserve Board for the purpose of making advances to Federal reserve banks through the Federal reserve agents as hereinafter set forth and for no other purpose, are hereby authorized. The said notes shall be obligations of the United States and shall be receivable by all national and member banks and Federal reserve banks and for all taxes, customs, and other public dues. They shall be redeemed in gold on demand at the Treasury Department of the United States, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, or in gold or lawful money at any Federal reserve bank.

Any Federal reserve bank may make application to the local Federal reserve agent for such amount of the Federal reserve notes hereinbefore provided for as it may require. Such application shall be accompanied with a tender to the local Federal reserve agent of collateral in amount equal to the sum of the Federal reserve notes thus applied for and issued pursuant to such application. The collateral security thus offered shall be notes and bills, accepted for rediscount under the provisions of section thirteen of this Act, and the Federal reserve agent shall each day notify the Federal Reserve Board of all issues and withdrawals of Federal reserve notes to and by the Federal reserve bank to which he is accredited. The said Federal Reserve Board may at any time call upon a Federal reserve bank for additional security to protect the Federal reserve notes issued to it.

Every Federal reserve bank shall maintain reserves in gold or lawful money of not less than thirty-five per centum against its deposits and reserves in gold of not less than forty per centum against its Federal reserve notes in actual circulation, and not offset by gold or lawful money deposited with the Federal reserve agent. Notes so paid out shall bear upon their faces a distinctive letter and serial number, which shall be assigned by the Federal Reserve Board to each Federal reserve bank. Whenever Federal reserve notes issued through one Federal reserve bank shall be received by another Federal reserve bank they shall be promptly returned for credit or redemption to the Federal reserve bank through which they were originally issued. No Federal reserve bank shall pay out notes issued through another under penalty of a tax of ten per centum upon the face value of notes so paid out. Notes presented for redemption at the Treasury of the United States shall be paid out of the redemption fund and returned to the Federal reserve banks through which they were originally issued, and thereupon such Federal reserve bank shall, upon demand of the Secretary of the Treasury, reimburse such redemption fund in lawful money or, if such Federal reserve notes have been redeemed by the Treasurer in gold or gold certificates, then such funds shall be reimbursed to the extent deemed necessary by the Secretary of the Treasury in gold or gold certificates, and such Federal reserve bank shall, so long as any of its Federal reserve notes remain outstanding, maintain with the Treasurer in gold an amount sufficient in the judgment of the Secretary to provide for all redemptions to be made by the Treasurer. Federal reserve notes received by the Treasury, otherwise than for redemption, may be exchanged for gold out of the redemption fund hereinafter provided and returned to the reserve bank through which they were originally issued, or they may be returned to such bank for the credit of the United States. Federal reserve notes unfit for circulation shall be returned by the Federal reserve agents to the Comptroller of the Currency for cancellation and destruction.

The Federal Reserve Board shall require each Federal reserve bank to maintain on deposit in the Treasury of the United States a sum in gold sufficient in the judgment of the Secretary of the Treasury for the redemption of the Federal reserve notes issued to such bank, but in no event less than five per centum; but such deposit of gold shall be counted and included as part of the forty per centum reserve hereinbefore required. The board shall have the right, acting through the Federal reserve agent, to grant in whole or in part or to reject entirely the application of any Federal reserve bank for Federal reserve notes; but to the extent that such application may be granted the Federal Reserve Board shall, through its local Federal reserve agent, supply Federal reserve notes to the bank so applying, and such bank shall be charged with the amount of such notes and shall pay such rate of interest on said amount as may be established by the Federal Reserve Board, and the amount of such Federal reserve notes so issued to any such bank shall, upon delivery, together with such notes of such Federal reserve bank as may be issued under section eighteen of this Act upon security of United States two per centum Government bonds, become a first and paramount lien on all the assets of such bank.

Any Federal reserve bank may at any time reduce its liability for outstanding Federal reserve notes by depositing, with the Federal reserve agent, its Federal reserve notes, gold, gold certificates, or lawful money of the United States. Federal reserve notes so deposited shall not be reissued, except upon compliance with the conditions of an original issue.

The Federal reserve agent shall hold such gold, gold certificates, or lawful money available exclusively for exchange for the outstanding Federal reserve notes when offered by the reserve bank of which he is a director. Upon the request of the Secretary of the Treasury the Federal Reserve Board shall require the Federal reserve agent to transmit so much of said gold to the Treasury of the United States as may be required for the exclusive purpose of the redemption of such notes.

Any Federal reserve bank may at its discretion withdraw collateral deposited with the local Federal reserve agent for the protection of its Federal reserve notes deposited with it and shall at the same time substitute therefor other like collateral of equal amount with the approval of the Federal reserve agent under regulations to be prescribed by the Federal Reserve Board.

In order to furnish suitable notes for circulation as Federal reserve notes, the Comptroller of the Currency shall, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, cause plates and dies to be engraved in the best manner to guard against counterfeits and fraudulent alterations, and shall have printed therefrom and numbered such quantities of such notes of the denominations of $5, $10, $20, $50, $100, as may be required to supply the Federal reserve banks. Such notes shall be in form and tenor as directed by the Secretary of the Treasury under the provisions of this Act and shall bear the

When such notes have been prepared, they shall be deposited in the Treasury, or in the subtreasury or mint of the United States nearest the place of business of each Federal reserve bank and shall be held for the use of such bank subject to the order of the Comptroller of the Currency for their delivery, as provided by this Act.

The plates and dies to be procured by the Comptroller of the Currency for the printing of such circulating notes shall remain under his control and direction, and the expenses necessarily incurred in executing the laws relating to the procuring of such notes, and all other expenses incidental to their issue and retirement, shall be paid by the Federal reserve banks, and the Federal Reserve Board shall include in its estimate of expenses levied against the Federal reserve banks a sufficient amount to cover the expenses herein provided for.

The examination of plates, dies, bed pieces, and so forth, and regulations relating to such examination of plates, dies, and so forth, of national-bank notes provided for in section fifty-one hundred and seventy-four Revised Statutes, is hereby extended to include notes herein provided for.

Any appropriation heretofore made out of the general funds of the Treasury for engraving plates and dies, the purchase of distinctive paper, or to cover any other expense in connection with the printing of national-bank notes or notes provided for by the Act of May thirtieth, nineteen hundred and eight, and any distinctive paper that may be on hand at the time of the passage of this Act may be used in the discretion of the Secretary for the purposes of this Act, and should the appropriations heretofore made be insufficient to meet the requirements of this Act in addition to circulating notes provided for by existing law, the Secretary is hereby authorized to use so much of any funds in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated for the purpose of furnishing the notes aforesaid: Provided, however, That nothing in this section contained shall be construed as exempting national banks or Federal reserve banks from their liability to reimburse the United States for any expenses incurred in printing and issuing circulating notes.

Every Federal reserve bank shall receive on deposit at par from member banks or from Federal reserve banks checks and drafts drawn upon any of its depositors, and when remitted by a Federal reserve bank, checks and drafts drawn by any depositor in any other Federal reserve bank or member bank upon funds to the credit of said depositor in said reserve bank or member bank. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as prohibiting a member bank from charging its actual expense incurred in collecting and remitting funds, or for exchange sold to its patrons. The Federal Reserve Board shall, by rule, fix the charges to be collected by the member banks from its patrons whose checks are cleared through the Federal reserve bank and the charge which may be imposed for the service of clearing or collection rendered by the Federal reserve bank.

The Federal Reserve Board shall make and promulgate from time to time regulations governing the transfer of funds and charges therefor among Federal reserve banks and their branches, and may at its discretion exercise the functions of a clearing house for such Federal reserve banks, or may designate a Federal reserve bank to

SEC. 18. After two years from the passage of this Act, and at any time during a period of twenty years thereafter, any member bank desiring to retire the whole or any part of its circulating notes, may file with the Treasurer of the United States an application to sell for its account, at par and accrued interest, United States bonds securing circulation to be retired.

The Treasurer shall, at the end of each quarterly period, furnish the Federal Reserve Board with a list of such applications, and the Federal Reserve Board may, in its discretion, require the Federal reserve banks to purchase such bonds from the banks whose applications have been filed with the Treasurer at least ten days before the end of any quarterly period at which the Federal Reserve Board may direct the purchase to be made: Provided, That Federal reserve banks shall not be permitted to purchase an amount to exceed $25,000,000 of such bonds in any one year, and which amount shall include bonds acquired under section four of this Act by the Federal reserve bank.

Provided further, That the Federal Reserve Board shall allot to each Federal reserve bank such proportion of such bonds as the capital and surplus of such bank shall bear to the aggregate capital and surplus of all the Federal reserve banks.

Upon notice from the Treasurer of the amount of bonds so sold for its account, each member bank shall duly assign and transfer, in writing, such bonds to the Federal reserve bank purchasing the same, and such Federal reserve bank shall, thereupon, deposit lawful money with the Treasurer of the United States for the purchase price of such bonds, and the Treasurer shall pay to the member bank selling such bonds any balance due after deducting a sufficient sum to redeem its outstanding notes secured by such bonds, which notes shall be canceled and permanently retired when redeemed.

The Federal reserve banks purchasing such bonds shall be permitted to take out an amount of circulating notes equal to the par value of such bonds.

Upon the deposit with the Treasurer of the United States of bonds so purchased, or any bonds with the circulating privilege acquired under section four of this Act, any Federal reserve bank making such deposit in the manner provided by existing law, shall be entitled to receive from the Comptroller of the Currency circulating notes in blank, registered and countersigned as provided by law, equal in amount to the par value of the bonds so deposited. shall be the obligations of the Federal reserve bank procuring the same, and shall be in form prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, and to the same tenor and effect as national-bank notes now provided by law. They shall be issued and redeemed under the same terms and conditions as national-bank notes except that they shall not be limited to the amount of the capital stock of the Federal reserve bank issuing them.

Upon application of any Federal reserve bank, approved by the Federal Reserve Board, the Secretary of the Treasury may issue, in exchange for United States two per centum gold bonds bearing the circulation privilege, but against which no circulation is outstanding, one-year gold notes of the United States without the circulation privilege, to an amount not to exceed one-half of the two per centum bonds so tendered for exchange, and thirty-year three per centum gold bonds without the circulation privilege for the remainder of the two per centum bonds so tendered: Provided, That at the time of such exchange the Federal reserve bank obtaining such one-year gold notes shall enter into an obligation with the Secretary of the Treasury binding itself to purchase from the United States for gold at the maturity of such one-year notes, an amount equal to those delivered in exchange for such bonds, if so requested by the Secretary, and at each maturity of one-year notes so purchased by such Federal reserve bank, to purchase from the United States such an amount of one-year notes as the Secretary may tender to such bank, not to exceed the amount issued to such bank in the first instance, in exchange for the two per centum United States gold bonds; said obligation to purchase at maturity such notes shall continue in force for a period not to exceed thirty years.

For the purpose of making the exchange herein provided for, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to issue at par Treasury notes in coupon or registered form as he may prescribe in denominations of one hundred dollars, or any multiple thereof, bearing interest at the rate of three per centum per annum, payable quarterly, such Treasury notes to be payable not more than one year from the date of their issue in gold coin of the present standard value, and to be exempt as to principal and interest from the payment of all taxes and duties of the United States except as provided by this Act, as well as from taxes in any form by or under State, municipal, or local authorities. And for the same purpose, the Secretary is authorized and empowered to issue United States gold bonds at par, bearing three per centum interest payable thirty years from date of issue, such bonds to be of the same general tenor and effect and to be issued under the same general terms and conditions as the United States three per centum bonds without the circulation privilege now issued and outstanding.

Upon application of any Federal reserve bank, approved by the Federal Reserve Board, the Secretary may issue at par such three per centum bonds in exchange for the one-year gold notes herein provided for.

When the Secretary of the Treasury shall have officially announced, in such manner as he may elect, the establishment of a Federal reserve bank in any district, every subscribing member bank shall establish and maintain reserves as follows:

(a) A bank not in a reserve or central reserve city as now or hereafter defined shall hold and maintain reserves equal to twelve per centum of the aggregate amount of its demand deposits and five per centum of its time deposits, as follows:

In its vaults for a period of thirty-six months after said date five-twelfths thereof and permanently thereafter four-twelfths.

In the Federal reserve bank of its district, for a period of twelve months after said date, two-twelfths, and for each succeeding six months an additional one-twelfth, until five-twelfths have been so deposited, which shall be the amount permanently required.

For a period of thirty-six months after said date the balance of the reserves may be held in its own vaults, or in the Federal reserve bank, or in national banks in reserve or central reserve cities as now defined by law.

After said thirty-six months' period said reserves, other than those hereinbefore required to be held in the vaults of the member bank and in the Federal reserve bank, shall be held in the vaults of the member bank or in the Federal reserve bank, or in both, at the option of the member bank.

(b) A bank in a reserve city, as now or hereafter defined, shall hold and maintain reserves equal to fifteen per centum of the aggregate amount of its demand deposits and five per centum of its time deposits, as follows:

In its vaults for a period of thirty-six months after said date six-fifteenths thereof, and permanently thereafter five-fifteenths.

In the Federal reserve bank of its district for a period of twelve months after the date aforesaid at least three-fifteenths, and for each succeeding six months an additional one-fifteenth, until six-fifteenths have been so deposited, which shall be the amount permanently required.

For a period of thirty-six months after said date the balance of the reserves may be held in its own vaults, or in the Federal reserve bank, or in national banks in reserve or central reserve cities as now defined by law.

After said thirty-six months' period all of said reserves, except those hereinbefore required to be held permanently in the vaults of the member bank and in the Federal reserve bank, shall be held in its vaults or in the Federal reserve bank, or in both, at the option of the member bank.

described in section fourteen properly indorsed and acceptable to the said reserve bank.

If a State bank or trust company is required by the law of its State to keep its reserves either in its own vaults or with another State bank or trust company, such reserve deposits so kept in such State bank or trust company shall be construed, within the meaning of this section, as if they were reserve deposits in a national bank in a reserve or central reserve city for a period of three years after the Secretary of the Treasury shall have officially announced the establishment of a Federal reserve bank in the district in which such State bank or trust company is situate. Except as thus provided, no member bank shall keep on deposit with any nonmember bank a sum in excess of ten per centum of its own paid-up capital and surplus. No member bank shall act as the medium or agent of a nonmember bank in applying for or receiving discounts from a Federal reserve bank under the provisions of this Act except by permission of the Federal Reserve Board.

The reserve carried by a member bank with a Federal reserve bank may, under the regulations and subject to such penalties as may be prescribed by the Federal Reserve Board, be checked against and withdrawn by such member bank for the purpose of meeting existing liabilities: Provided, however, That no bank shall at any time make new loans or shall pay any dividends unless and until the total reserve required by law is fully restored.

In estimating the reserves required by this Act, the net balance of amounts due to and from other banks shall be taken as the basis for ascertaining the deposits against which reserves shall be determined. Balances in reserve banks due to member banks shall, to the extent herein provided, be counted as reserves.

National banks located in Alaska or outside the continental United States may remain nonmember banks, and shall in that event maintain reserves and comply with all the conditions now provided by law regulating them; or said banks, except in the Philippine Islands, may, with the consent of the Reserve Board, become member banks of any one of the reserve districts, and shall, in that event, take stock, maintain reserves, and be subject to all the other provisions of this Act.

SEC. 20. So much of sections two and three of the Act of June twentieth, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, entitled "An Act fixing the amount of United States notes, providing for a redistribution of the national-bank currency, and for other purposes," as provides that the fund deposited by any national banking association with the Treasurer of the United States for the redemption of its notes shall be counted as a part of its lawful reserve as provided in the Act aforesaid, is hereby repealed. And from and after the passage of this Act such fund of five per centum shall in no case be counted by any national banking association as a part of its lawful reserve.

BANK EXAMINATIONS.

every member bank at least twice in each calendar year and oftener if considered necessary: Provided, however, That the Federal Reserve Board may authorize examination by the State authorities to be accepted in the case of State banks and trust companies and may at any time direct the holding of a special examination of State banks or trust companies that are stockholders in any Federal reserve bank. The examiner making the examination of any national bank, or of any other member bank, shall have power to make a thorough examination of all the affairs of the bank and in doing so he shall have power to administer oaths and to examine any of the officers and agents thereof under oath and shall make a full and detailed report of the condition of said bank to the Comptroller of the Currency.

The Federal Reserve Board, upon the recommendation of the Comptroller of the Currency, shall fix the salaries of all bank examiners and make report thereof to Congress. The expense of the examinations herein provided for shall be assessed by the Comptroller of the Currency upon the banks examined in proportion to assets or resources held by the banks upon the dates of examination of the various banks.

In addition to the examinations made and conducted by the Comptroller of the Currency, every Federal reserve bank may, with the approval of the Federal reserve agent or the Federal Reserve Board, provide for special examination of member banks within its district. The expense of such examinations shall be borne by the bank examined. Such examinations shall be so conducted as to inform the Federal reserve bank of the condition of its member banks and of the lines of credit which are being extended by them. Every Federal reserve bank shall at all times furnish to the Federal Reserve Board such information as may be demanded concerning the condition of any member bank within the district of the said Federal reserve bank.

No bank shall be subject to any visitatorial powers other than such as are authorized by law, or vested in the courts of justice or such as shall be or shall have been exercised or directed by Congress, or by either House thereof or by any committee of Congress or of either House duly authorized.

The Federal Reserve Board shall, at least once each year, order an examination of each Federal reserve bank, and upon joint application of ten member banks the Federal Reserve Board shall order a special examination and report of the condition of any Federal reserve bank.

SEC. 22. No member bank or any officer, director, or employee thereof shall hereafter make any loan or grant any gratuity to any bank examiner. Any bank officer, director, or employee violating this provision shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be imprisoned not exceeding one year or fined not more than $5,000, or both, and may be fined a further sum equal to the money so loaned or gratuity given. Any examiner accepting a loan or gratuity from any bank examined by him or from an officer, director, or employee thereof shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be imprisoned not exceeding one year or fined not more than $5,000, or both; and may be fined a further sum equal to the money so loaned or gratuity given; and shall forever thereafter be disqualified from holding office as a national-bank examiner. any other service for compensation while holding such office for any bank or officer, director, or employee thereof.

Other than the usual salary or director's fee paid to any officer, director, or employee of a member bank and other than a reasonable fee paid by said bank to such officer, director, or employee for services rendered to such bank, no officer, director, employee, or attorney of a member bank shall be a beneficiary of or receive, directly or indirectly, any fee, commission, gift, or other consideration for or in connection with any transaction or business of the bank. No examiner, public or private, shall disclose the names of borrowers or the collateral for loans of a member bank to other than the proper officers of such bank without first having obtained the express permission in writing from the Comptroller of the Currency, or from the board of directors of such bank, except when ordered to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction, or by direction of the Congress of the United States, or of either House thereof, or any committee of Congress or of either House duly authorized. Any person violating any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding $5,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

Except as provided in existing laws, this provision shall not take effect until sixty days after the passage of this Act.

SEC. 23. The stockholders of every national banking association shall be held individually responsible for all contracts, debts, and engagements of such association, each to the amount of his stock therein, at the par value thereof in addition to the amount invested in such stock. The stockholders in any national banking association who shall have transferred their shares or registered the transfer thereof within sixty days next before the date of the failure of such association to meet its obligations, or with knowledge of such impending failure, shall be liable to the same extent as if they had made no such transfer, to the extent that the subsequent transferee fails to meet such liability; but this provision shall not be construed to affect in any way any recourse which such shareholders might otherwise have against those in whose names such shares are registered at the time of such failure.

LOANS ON FARM LANDS.

SEC. 24. Any national banking association not situated in a central reserve city may make loans secured by improved and unencumbered farm land, situated within its Federal reserve district, but no such loan shall be made for a longer time than five years, nor for an amount exceeding fifty per centum of the actual value of the property offered as security. Any such bank may make such loans in an aggregate sum equal to twenty-five per centum of its capital and surplus or to one-third of its time deposits and such banks may continue hereafter as heretofore to receive time deposits and to pay interest on the same.

The Federal Reserve Board shall have power from time to time to add to the list of cities in which national banks shall not be permitted to make loans secured upon real estate in the manner described in this section.

FOREIGN BRANCHES.

SEC. 25. Any national banking association possessing a capital and surplus of $1,000,000 or more may file application with the Federal Reserve Board, upon such conditions and under such regulations as may be prescribed by the said board, for the purpose of securing authority to establish branches in foreign countries or dependencies of the United States for the furtherance of the foreign commerce of the United States, and to act, if required to do so, as fiscal agents of the United States. Such application shall specify, in addition to the name and capital of the banking association filing it, the place or places where the banking operations proposed are to be carried on, and the amount of capital set aside for the conduct of its foreign business. The Federal Reserve Board shall have power to approve or to reject such application if, in its judgment, the amount of capital proposed to be set aside for the conduct of foreign business is inadequate, or if for other reasons the granting of such application is deemed inexpedient.

Every national banking association which shall receive authority to establish foreign branches shall be required at all times to furnish information concerning the condition of such branches to the Comptroller of the Currency upon demand, and the Federal Reserve Board may order special examinations of the said foreign branches at such time or times as it may deem best. Every such national banking association shall conduct the accounts of each foreign branch independently of the accounts of other foreign branches established by it and of its home office, and shall at the end of each fiscal period transfer to its general ledger the profit or loss accruing at each branch as a separate item.

SEC. 26. All provisions of law inconsistent with or superseded by any of the provisions of this Act are to that extent and to that extent only hereby repealed: Provided, Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to repeal the parity provision or provisions contained in an Act approved March fourteenth, nineteen hundred entitled "An Act to define and fix the standard of value, to maintain the parity of all forms of money issued or coined by the United States, to refund the public debt, and for other purposes," and the Secretary of the Treasury may for the purpose of maintaining such parity and to strengthen the gold reserve, borrow gold on the security of United States bonds authorized by section two of the Act last referred to or for one-year gold notes bearing interest at a rate of not to exceed three per centum per annum, or sell the same if necessary to obtain gold. When the funds of the Treasury on hand justify, he may purchase and retire such outstanding bonds and notes.

SEC. 27. The provisions of the Act of May thirtieth, nineteen hundred and eight, authorizing national currency associations, the issue of additional national-bank circulation, and creating a National Monetary Commission, which expires by limitation under the terms of such Act on the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and fourteen, are hereby extended to June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and fifteen, and sections fifty-one hundred and fifty-three, fifty-one hundred and seventy-two, fifty-one hundred and ninety-one, and fifty-two hundred and fourteen of the Revised Statutes of the United States, which were amended by the Act of May thirtieth, nineteen National banking associations having circulating notes secured otherwise than by bonds of the United States, shall pay for the first three months a tax at the rate of three per centum per annum upon the average amount of such of their notes in circulation as are based upon the deposit of such securities, and afterwards an additional tax rate of one-half of one per centum per annum for each month until a tax of six per centum per annum is reached, and thereafter such tax of six per centum per annum upon the average amount of such notes.

SEC. 28. Section fifty-one hundred and forty-three of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows: Any association formed under this title may, by the vote of shareholders owning two-thirds of its capital stock, reduce its capital to any sum not below the amount required by this title to authorize the formation of associations; but no such reduction shall be allowable which will reduce the capital of the association below the amount required for its outstanding circulation, nor shall any reduction be made until the amount of the proposed reduction has been reported to the Comptroller of the Currency and such reduction has been approved by the said Comptroller of the Currency and by the Federal Reserve Board, or by the organization committee pending the organization of the Federal Reserve Board.

SEC. 29. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, or part of this Act shall for any reason be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder of this Act, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

SEC. 30. The right to amend, alter, or repeal this Act is hereby expressly reserved.

:i- man, A.R. am writing because of the BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives here on: June 20th, 2019~A.D. in a meeting[3] openly abandoned their compliance with the U.S. banking laws as described below in (b) while arguing that :i -man, A.R., et al., either accept their corporate policy in a place over the U.S. banking laws and regulations or else :i -man, A.R. would have no recourse with them, and no alternative than to execute the :right of the D.E.N.- presentment to You directly at the Federal Reserve Bank - San Francisco.

The D.E.N. is an Exempted-Security Presentment

The presentment is an obligation of the UNITED STATES government

under the Emergency Banking Act of 1933, et seq. The D.E.N. was tendered by :i-man, A.R., the :issuer, on: June 20th, 2019~A.D., to the BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives CHRIS PRICE and AMANDA HAMILTON who first accepted and took possession of the D.E.N. presentment as a 'banking deposit' as agreed. Thenafter- the- acceptance of the D.E.N. did CHRIS PRICE and AMANDA HAMILTON reject, offered and argued for their non-acceptance of the instrument, and summarily returned-back the D.E.N. to :i -man, A.R. for their stated reasons; that: a) they did not know what a presentment is, nor b) what their legal duties or obligations are under the Emergency Banking Act of 1933, and nor c) what compliance requirements under UCC regulations governed their actions at that time.

BNP- Paribas BOTW corporation policy versus UNITED STATES law: Civilian

The BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives offered in a verbal contract that :i- man, A.R. authorize that a copy of the D.E.N. be obtained to be sent to their BNP- Paribas BOTW 'Resolutions Department' for to determine with their BNP-Paribas BOTW's 'Legal' [department] what they will say the D.E.N. says and what it means; a process the BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives reveals usually takes several weeks.

As a Civilian[4], :i- man, A.R. did decline the BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives' offer in the discussion unto the impasse and mutual non-agreement.

BNP- Paribas BOTW policy

The BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives stated openly that the BNP-Paribas BOTW policy authorizes them to presently ignore the UNITED STATES' legislative acts and regulations; that, if :i- man, A.R. did Not agree to their offer for the Resolution-Legal department- apparatus solely determining what is the UNITED STATES' law to be honored then, else, the only alternative is this direct presentment of the D.E.N. to You, et al., at the regional Federal Reserve Bank- San Francisco, and with a notice to the Alien Property Custodian for :i- man, :one of the living- soul- People of The United States of America.

You now upon this receipt do possess the: D.E.N. presentment and order, by the undersigning, for the authority to appropriately deposit the :demanded-equity- use currency in the amount stated into account at the bank indicated for :i. –

4 Civilian means: i- man am a non-combatant, non-belligerent, nor ally of enemy, an :Ohioan: one of the People of The United States of America, and to the best of my present ability am compliant with the UNITED STATES' Emergency Banking Act of 1933, et seq., -Trading With The Enemy Act of 1917, as amended, with regard to the D.E.N..

:i -man am :Beverly-Jean: Romero- Hill – :New Mexican[1]: known by the given-name: Beverly-Jean: (of the family) Romero, :birth: New Mexico state: © June 15th day, 1958; Authorized Representative of the subrogation: BEVERLY JEAN ROMERO- HILL, :berth: NEW MEXICO ® June 15th date, 1958.

The: BNP- Paribas Bank of the West, 'BNP- Paribas BOTW', Phoenix, Arizona, and The Presentment of the Demand- :Equity- Note[2], 'D.E.N.',

:i- man, A.R. am writing because of the BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives here on: June 20th, 2019~A.D. in a meeting[3] openly abandoned their compliance with the U.S. banking laws as described below in (b) while arguing that :i -man, A.R., et al., either accept their corporate policy in a place over the U.S. banking laws and regulations or else :i -man, A.R. would have no recourse with them, and no alternative than to execute the :right of the D.E.N.- presentment to You directly at the Federal Reserve Bank - San Francisco.

The D.E.N. is an Exempted-Security Presentment

The presentment is an obligation of the UNITED STATES government

1 :i -man -beneficiary- :Beverly-Jean: Romero- Hill from the 1958 A.D. birth-unto-now: July~2019 am a Civilian and not a :combatant, belligerent, or ally-of-enemy. - Trading with the Enemy Act- 1917 – TWEA, sec. 5(b) as amended within the Emergency Banking Act- 1933.

under the Emergency Banking Act of 1933, et seq. The D.E.N. was tendered by :i- man, A.R., the :issuer, on: June 20th, 2019~A.D., to the BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives CHRIS PRICE and AMANDA HAMILTON who first accepted and took possession of the D.E.N. presentment as a 'banking deposit' as agreed. Thenafter- the- acceptance of the D.E.N. did CHRIS PRICE and AMANDA HAMILTON reject, offered and argued for their non-acceptance of the instrument, and summarily returned-back the D.E.N. to :i -man, A.R. for their stated reasons; that: a) they did not know what a presentment is, nor b) what their legal duties or obligations are under the Emergency Banking Act of 1933, and nor c) what compliance requirements under UCC regulations governed their actions at that time.

BNP- Paribas BOTW corporation policy versus UNITED STATES law: Civilian

The BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives offered in a verbal contract that :i- man, A.R. authorize that a copy of the D.E.N. be obtained to be sent to their BNP- Paribas BOTW 'Resolutions Department' for to determine with their BNP- Paribas BOTW's 'Legal' [department] what they will say the D.E.N. says and what it means; a process the BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives reveals usually takes several weeks.

As a Civilian[4], :i- man, A.R. did decline the BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives' offer in the discussion unto the impasse and mutual non-agreement.

BNP- Paribas BOTW policy

The BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives stated openly that the BNP- Paribas BOTW policy authorizes them to presently ignore the UNITED STATES' legislative acts and regulations; that, if :i- man, A.R. did Not agree to their offer for the Resolution-Legal department- apparatus solely determining what is the UNITED STATES' law to be honored then, else, the only alternative is this direct presentment of the D.E.N. to You, et al., at the regional Federal Reserve Bank- San Francisco, and with a notice to the Alien Property Custodian for :i- man, :one of the living- soul- People of The United States of America.

You now upon this receipt do possess the: D.E.N. presentment and order, by the undersigning, for the authority to appropriately deposit the :demanded-equity- use currency in the amount stated into account at the bank indicated for :i, -

4 Civilian means: i- man am a non-combatant, non-belligerent, nor ally of enemy, an :New Mexican: one of the People of The United States of America, and to the best of my present ability am compliant with the UNITED STATES' Emergency Banking Act of 1933, et seq., -Trading With The Enemy Act of 1917, as amended, with regard to the D.E.N..

The identification of :i-man :Darrell-James, of the family Hill is clear, the :civilian declaration is firm, and the :property and chattel and liquid assets and currency requirements are certain. :The- all that remains to be elucidated now is the :strength of 12 U.S.-EBA-1933: the indenture: In :1933 A.D. the 1933 U.S.- corporation- government-services-provider, et al., wholly indentured itself by the U.S.-EBA-1933 to the people of: TheUSofA, contracting a :trusteeship over all of the people's national property then-to-fore as the collateral for a purported-emergent U.S. bankruptcy-condition, and a new deal. Thereupon, and therein 1933, et seq., the :people acquiesced to the U.S. trust- :indenture and to the 'New Deal' of that time. The indenture of the U.S.-EBA-1933 ended in March 2003.

13 The :enemy-condition, :civilian declaration: The TWEA-1917, as amended by: EBA-1933 began and continues to presume that the people of: TheUSofA are the presumed-enemy of the U.S.- corporate-operations- failings in the 1927- 1933 A.D.- :U.S. -Federal Reserve Banking System, thereby justifying placing the :people of: TheUSofA under the military- :rule under the U.S. -Lieber code, as amended; meaning, that :each-man of the people of: TheUSofA, in :order to meet the :condition of the 'civilian' -declaration, must proactively affirm in the writing to the U.S. trustees that they man-beneficiary are 'civilian': not combatant, not belligerent, not ally-of-enemy.

under the Emergency Banking Act of 1933, et seq. The D.E.N. was tendered by :i-man, A.R., the :issuer, on: June 20th, 2019~A.D., to the BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives CHRIS PRICE and AMANDA HAMILTON who first accepted and took possession of the D.E.N. presentment as a 'banking deposit' as agreed. Thenafter- the- acceptance of the D.E.N. did CHRIS PRICE and AMANDA HAMILTON reject, offered and argued for their non-acceptance of the instrument, and summarily returned-back the D.E.N. to :i -man, A.R. for their stated reasons; that: a) they did not know what a presentment is, nor b) what their legal duties or obligations are under the Emergency Banking Act of 1933, and nor c) what compliance requirements under UCC regulations governed their actions at that time.

BNP- Paribas BOTW corporation policy versus UNITED STATES law: Civilian

The BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives offered in a verbal contract that :i- man, A.R. authorize that a copy of the D.E.N. be obtained to be sent to their BNP- Paribas BOTW 'Resolutions Department' for to determine with their BNP-Paribas BOTW's 'Legal' [department] what they will say the D.E.N. says and what it means; a process the BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives reveals usually takes several weeks.

As a Civilian[4], :i- man, A.R. did decline the BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives' offer in the discussion unto the impasse and mutual non-agreement.

BNP- Paribas BOTW policy

The BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives stated openly that the BNP-Paribas BOTW policy authorizes them to presently ignore the UNITED STATES' legislative acts and regulations; that, if :i- man, A.R. did Not agree to their offer for the Resolution-Legal department- apparatus solely determining what is the UNITED STATES' law to be honored then, else, the only alternative is this direct presentment of the D.E.N. to You, et al., at the regional Federal Reserve Bank- San Francisco, and with a notice to the Alien Property Custodian for :i- man, :one of the living- soul- People of The United States of America.

You now upon this receipt do possess the: D.E.N. presentment and order, by the undersigning, for the authority to appropriately deposit the :demanded-equity- use currency in the amount stated into account at the bank indicated for :i.-

under the Emergency Banking Act of 1933, et seq. The D.E.N. was tendered by :i-man, A.R., the :issuer, on: June 20th, 2019~A.D., to the BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives CHRIS PRICE and AMANDA HAMILTON who first accepted and took possession of the D.E.N. presentment as a 'banking deposit' as agreed. Thenafter- the- acceptance of the D.E.N. did CHRIS PRICE and AMANDA HAMILTON reject, offered and argued for their non-acceptance of the instrument, and summarily returned-back the D.E.N. to :i -man, A.R. for their stated reasons; that: a) they did not know what a presentment is, nor b) what their legal duties or obligations are under the Emergency Banking Act of 1933, and nor c) what compliance requirements under UCC regulations governed their actions at that time.

BNP- Paribas BOTW corporation policy versus UNITED STATES law; Civilian

The BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives offered in a verbal contract that :i- man, A.R. authorize that a copy of the D.E.N. be obtained to be sent to their BNP- Paribas BOTW 'Resolutions Department' for to determine with their BNP-Paribas BOTW's 'Legal' [department] what they will say the D.E.N. says and what it means; a process the BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives reveals usually takes several weeks.

As a Civilian[4], :i- man, A.R. did decline the BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives' offer in the discussion unto the impasse and mutual non-agreement.

BNP- Paribas BOTW policy

The BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives stated openly that the BNP-Paribas BOTW policy authorizes them to presently ignore the UNITED STATES' legislative acts and regulations; that, if :i- man, A.R. did Not agree to their offer for the Resolution-Legal department- apparatus solely determining what is the UNITED STATES' law to be honored then, else, the only alternative is this direct presentment of the D.E.N. to You, et al., at the regional Federal Reserve Bank- San Francisco, and with a notice to the Alien Property Custodian for :i- man, :one of the living- soul- People of The United States of America.

You now upon this receipt do possess the: D.E.N. presentment and order, by the undersigning, for the authority to appropriately deposit the :demanded-equity- use currency in the amount stated into account at the bank indicated for :i. –

Deposit- slip completed and authorized to the account and for the amount authorised and required by :i- man-beneficiary in the D.E.N., appended: 1 slip (stapled to a sheet).

8) :i- man believe the :U.S. Trustee(s) are to be :Not-in-a-competition with :i- man-beneficiary for this :property- :claimed.

9) The: 'emergency' of the U.S.-EBA-1933 - indenture-trust[12], was legislatively ended in: 1976.

10) The U.S.-EBA-1933 - indenture- trust- :obligation upon the people-debentured under the agreement ended in: 2003 A.D. And, now, 11) :i- man believe that the U.S.-EBA-1933 -:indenture is now a dry trust.

12) The :U.S.-EBA-1933 amended[13] the Trading With The Enemy Act, 'TWEA-1917'.

13) The: 'enemy condition' of the TWEA-1917, as amended by: U.S.-EBA-1933 describes :i- man-beneficiary as a 'civilian: not combatant, not belligerent, not ally-of-enemy'.

14) :i- man's a) identification by the authenticated debenture certificate and b) the :civilian- :declaration in the Jurat- affidavit was delivered to you: Donald: POTUS - Commander- Obligor Trump, USPS RMN: RE 322 404 098 US and William -P.: USAG- APC Barr, USPS RMN: RE 322 404 084 US. And:

15) i- man do not consent to the any further U.S.-EBA-1933 Trustee, et al. agents use of :this or any other diffuse- systemic -enemy- non-civilian- presumption that implements threatening and/or injuring onto :i- man-beneficiary, et al.

16) :i- man-beneficiary require the :U.S. Commander and Trustee, et al. of the :U.S.-EBA-1933 - :indenture to act under the fidelity of their oath, duty and obligation to the UNITED STATES Constitution under :'The Constitution for the United States of America' for the absolute benefit to :i -man-beneficiary.

18) :i- man require the :Common- law- trustee of the U.S.-EBA-1933 - :indenture to act under the fidelity for the absolute benefit of :i- man, and specifically for the a) :assurance of the D.E.N. and b) the emergent release of :all of the other property and chattel and liquid assets and currency holden by :you most recently: 2016 – now.

The identification of :i-man :Darrell-James, of the family Hill is clear, the :civilian declaration is firm, and the :property and chattel and liquid assets and currency requirements are certain. :The- all that remains to be elucidated now is the :strength of 12 U.S.-EBA-1933: the indenture: In :1933 A.D. the 1933 U.S.- corporation- government-services-provider, et al., wholly indentured itself by the U.S.-EBA-1933 to the people of: TheUSofA, contracting a :trusteeship over all of the people's national property then-to-fore as the collateral for a purported-emergent U.S. bankruptcy-condition, and a new deal. Thereupon, and therein 1933, et seq., the :people acquiesced to the U.S. trust- :indenture and to the 'New Deal' of that time. The indenture of the U.S.-EBA-1933 ended in March 2003.

13 The :enemy-condition, :civilian declaration: The TWEA-1917, as amended by: EBA-1933 began and continues to presume that the people of: TheUSofA are the presumed-enemy of the U.S.- corporate-operations- failings in the 1927- 1933 A.D.- :U.S. -Federal Reserve Banking System, thereby justifying placing the :people of: TheUSofA under the military- :rule under the U.S. -Lieber code, as amended; meaning, that :each-man of the people of: TheUSofA, in :order to meet the :condition of the 'civilian' -declaration, must proactively affirm in the writing to the U.S. trustees that they man-beneficiary are 'civilian': not combatant, not belligerent, not ally-of-enemy.

under the Emergency Banking Act of 1933, et seq. The D.E.N. was tendered by :i-man, A.R., the :issuer, on: June 20th, 2019~A.D., to the BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives CHRIS PRICE and AMANDA HAMILTON who first accepted and took possession of the D.E.N. presentment as a 'banking deposit' as agreed. Thenafter- the- acceptance of the D.E.N. did CHRIS PRICE and AMANDA HAMILTON reject, offered and argued for their non-acceptance of the instrument, and summarily returned-back the D.E.N. to :i -man, A.R. for their stated reasons; that: a) they did not know what a presentment is, nor b) what their legal duties or obligations are under the Emergency Banking Act of 1933, and nor c) what compliance requirements under UCC regulations governed their actions at that time.

BNP- Paribas BOTW corporation policy versus UNITED STATES law: Civilian

The BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives offered in a verbal contract that :i- man, A.R. authorize that a copy of the D.E.N. be obtained to be sent to their BNP- Paribas BOTW 'Resolutions Department' for to determine with their BNP-Paribas BOTW's 'Legal' [department] what they will say the D.E.N. says and what it means; a process the BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives reveals usually takes several weeks.

As a Civilian[4], :i- man, A.R. did decline the BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives' offer in the discussion unto the impasse and mutual non-agreement.

BNP- Paribas BOTW policy

The BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives stated openly that the BNP-Paribas BOTW policy authorizes them to presently ignore the UNITED STATES' legislative acts and regulations; that, if :i- man, A.R. did Not agree to their offer for the Resolution-Legal department- apparatus solely determining what is the UNITED STATES' law to be honored then, else, the only alternative is this direct presentment of the D.E.N. to You, et al., at the regional Federal Reserve Bank- San Francisco, and with a notice to the Alien Property Custodian for :i- man, :one of the living- soul- People of The United States of America.

You now upon this receipt do possess the: D.E.N. presentment and order, by the undersigning, for the authority to appropriately deposit the :demanded-equity- use currency in the amount stated into account at the bank indicated for :i.-

Thenafter- the- acceptance of the D.E.N. did CHRIS PRICE and AMANDA HAMILTON reject, offered and argued for their non-acceptance of the instrument, and summarily returned-back the D.E.N. to :i -man, A.R. for their stated reasons; that: a) they did not know what a presentment is, nor b) what their legal duties or obligations are under the Emergency Banking Act of 1933, and nor c) what compliance requirements under UCC regulations governed their actions at that time.

BNP- Paribas BOTW corporation policy versus UNITED STATES law: Civilian

The BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives offered in a verbal contract that :i- man, A.R. authorize that a copy of the D.E.N. be obtained to be sent to their BNP- Paribas BOTW 'Resolutions Department' for to determine with their BNP- Paribas BOTW's 'Legal' [department] what they will say the D.E.N. says and what it means; a process the BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives reveals usually takes several weeks.

As a Civilian[4], :i- man, A.R. did decline the BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives' offer in the discussion unto the impasse and mutual non-agreement.

BNP- Paribas BOTW policy

The BNP- Paribas BOTW representatives stated openly that the BNP- Paribas BOTW policy authorizes them to presently ignore the UNITED STATES' legislative acts and regulations; that, if :i- man, A.R. did Not agree to their offer for the Resolution-Legal department- apparatus solely determining what is the UNITED STATES' law to be honored then, else, the only alternative is this direct presentment of the D.E.N. to You, et al., at the regional Federal Reserve Bank- San Francisco, and with a notice to the Alien Property Custodian for :i- man, :one of the living- soul- People of The United States of America.

You now upon this receipt do possess the: D.E.N. presentment and order, by the undersigning, for the authority to appropriately deposit the :demanded-equity- use currency in the amount stated into account at the bank indicated for :i. -

The identification of :i-man :Darrell-James, of the family Hill is clear, the :civilian declaration is firm, and the :property and chattel and liquid assets and currency requirements are certain. :The- all that remains to be elucidated now is the :strength of 12 U.S.-EBA-1933: the indenture: In :1933 A.D. the 1933 U.S.- corporation- government-services-provider, et al., wholly indentured itself by the U.S.-EBA-1933 to the people of: TheUSofA, contracting a :trusteeship over all of the people's national property then-to-fore as the collateral for a purported-emergent U.S. bankruptcy-condition, and a new deal. 13 The :enemy-condition, :civilian declaration: The TWEA-1917, as amended by: EBA-1933 began and continues to presume that the people of: TheUSofA are the presumed-enemy of the U.S.- corporate-operations- failings in the 1927- 1933 A.D.- :U.S. -Federal Reserve Banking System, thereby justifying placing the :people of: TheUSofA under the military- :rule under the U.S. -Lieber code, as amended; meaning, that :each-man of the people of: TheUSofA, in :order to meet the :condition of the 'civilian' -declaration, must proactively affirm in the writing to the U.S. trustees that they man-beneficiary are 'civilian': not combatant, not belligerent, not ally-of-enemy.

19. :i- man believe that the matter of the June 8th, 2017 contract is an equity-venue matter. :i- man believe that the matter of the June 8th, 2017 contract is an equity-venue matter that is now ignored in the the Pinal- county- agents by :denial of :due process, and by the :push for the Pinal- county -Clerk- of-the-Superior court to assure the :deprivation of :rights of a man-beneficiary in a commercial court that does not see nor hear the man- :Jay-Roy's or acknowledge his right of common access to the court that is the protected due process and jurisdiction. By the bold and desperate- collusion to cover-up the un-Lawful and illegal unjust commercial gains, violations are exposed, and the retaliation against the man- :Jay-Roy, et al., is this systematic injury, and, consequentially, begets more injury upon :i- man-beneficiary: Darrell-James: Hill.

20. :Remedy: For the safety and protection of :i- man-beneficiary: Darrell-James: Hill, et al., :i- man require that a court-of-record with trial-by-jury be the mechanism to try the claims of the the Pinal- county and of the man- :Jay-Roy, et al., to ascertain is they are true. Additionally, :i- man require that a court-of-record with trial-by-jury be convened to try the claims of the facts and the law of the June 8th, 2017 contract to ascertain which matters of the fact and the contract between the man- :Jay-Roy and the Pinal- county, et al.- agents' are right and just.

21. If the Pinal- county, et al., -court chooses to ignore the subsequently injured party: i- man- :Darrell-James: Hill, et al. for their sake of sustaining to themselves more non-political capital gains by the denial-of-due-process and default process in place against the man: Jay-Roy: Ingold then :i- man- :Darrell-James: Hill do not consent to being in anyway considered to be accepting of that wrong-doing, and :i- man in no wise concede any rights-executed or to be executed against any such perpetrators. And, upon the cause that this matter between the man: Pinal- county and the man- :Jay-Roy: Ingold defaults for the corruption that is predetermined, :i- man: Darrell-James: Hill do not consent to the Pinal- county corruption, and all of my property will be immune

RE: Right of Consuance

:Todd, :Steve, :Pete, :Mike, :Anthony, :Natasha Greetings:

Thank you for your service.
My prayers are with you.

You, et al., must assured to be aware

:Appended- hereto is the :affidavit- :document regarding the :deprivation of the rights-executed of a :man: Jay-Roy: Ingold, and, now-also, :i- man: Darrell-James: Hill, subsequent to a matter wherein you, the: Pinal-county-Board-of Supervisors are directly responsible.

:i- man am :Darrell-James: Hill, as indicated in the document. And, for the reasons affirmed and inferred in the document, :malfeasance may be illustrated, as:

1. :i- man have witnessed coercive-misuse of :authority that became to negatively-effect the :peace of the people at their :place-of-habitation, as indicated in the document.
2. :Not-explicitly-stated in the document is the fact that :this-matter could not exist unless the :Pinal-county-Board-of-Supervisors somehow authorized for :whatever- reasons-given that the county attorneys act-against the :man- :Jay-Roy: Ingold, as indicated in the document.
3. :Now, did you not-know that your Pinal county agents formed and accepted a May 8th,

Pinal county Bd of Supv/ Clerk: USPS R[illegible]

2017 agreement which they activated :contract on :June 8th, 2017 with the man: Jay-Roy: Ingold by the authority of your community-development-mechanism- :commercial-: offer? :Jay-Roy, in the accordance with Arizona Law and statute, was formally denied the right to opt-out of the Pinal-county, et al.: community development program, a :private-:commercial-gains - :vehicle of the Pinal county, on June 8th, 2017.

The :Ingold- :contract now-time requires the :Pinal county, et seq. to pay to the :man: Jay-Roy: Ingold the :amount of :one- :one-ounce silver U.S. dollar per the minute for these continued- actions, as indicated in the contract. – i.e., starting on: April 5, 2017: 5:00 p.m. until this :matter is resolved – (EXAMPLE BILL CALCULATION: 365 days/ year x 24 hours/day x 60 minutes/ hour/day = 525,600 minutes/hour/day/year)– if the :deprivation-of- :rights-abuses did not cease and desist on :June 8th, 2017: 08:30 a.m.

Now: the :man- Craig: your :Deputy county Attorney Cameron is the actor at the center of the matter of these facts which have now become none-other-than- a- :manifestation of the intent to deprive the :man- :Jay-Roy: Ingold by the denial of the man- :Jay's right(s)-executed for :Jay-Roy, et al., to live in the peace on his private- :property, et seq.

As indicated in the appended document, :i- man: Darrell-James: Hill-beneficiary am the steward(s) (with: wife: Beverly) by a :private- :contract on the :Jay-Roy: Ingold- private-property, and :i- man now have additionally been drawn directly into this matter as a :private- :man- :beneficiary and made-subject on :your-behalf by :your-:agent: Craig: Attorney Cameron. The appended document of the right-executed, The right of Consuance..., establishes the :fact that :i-man and :wife: Beverly-Jean: Romero- Hill-beneficiary, have now been made targets, even: collateral-damage, by the man: Craig: your- :Attorney-agent(s).

:You have now been made aware of :this wrong-doing- :man- abuse by your authority.

:You have now been made aware of :this, that your authorization has been used to do-wrong against private people and civilians-: i-man: Darrell-James: Hill, and Beverly-Jean: Romero- Hill. All that remains to be known-now :is, 'Is :this wrong-doing :your :manly-:intent? Is this the :policy of the Pinal- county-, Board-of-Supervisors?

In :Conclusion, If :i- man-beneficiary may suggest

:i- man believe that :it is in the best long- and short- term interests of all parties that this matter goes-away now; the :pursuit of :doing-wrong is never profitable. :i- man observe to suggest that: because this-type- :malfeasance is never good, through your management :this matter is best withdrawn and amicably settled-and-closed. This serves to the advantage of all parties, the man: Jay-Roy: Ingold, et al., and the people of :Pinal county.

3. :i don't want to be tricked or forced to/or through a soul-less commercial court: – i don't want to be an attorney: – i don't want to be made famous by a frivolous PINAL/ Pinal county color-of-law suit. Rather: i have always simply wanted to not-be-interfered-with during my sojourn here. – creates a disturbance about and on our rural land and home area and environment. – This stimulated defensiveness for the community family and personal safety, and must always be investigated.

2017 May-June 8th Contract: Compliance after ~ June 2018

20. 2018: August-October: James' disturbance is knowingly dangerous and disturbing to our peaceful living; a stress of this travail became to hover over the land and the people.

21. :We- people of the community have to consider whether there is a something mentally wrong with the man :James: Code Compliance Officer Meadows, or there is an ethical failing in the PINAL/Pinal county.

22. 2018: August – October: James' behavior is a threat to :my, et al.'s land and home area community for the reasons: we have to check every disturbance, and we had the man power to watch the man :James or the intrusions could have likely escalated into earlier confrontations.

23. 2018: October: The patterned interference by the man :James must needs to be ceased from further duress and harm upon the people on the land and home area: inhabitants, animals and visitors.

25. 2018: June-July to October: Directly due to and because of :James' menacing and nuisance, :i-man did in-good-faith email to :James that he would make an end of the menacing and nuisance harassment, for the man to stop with his troublesome actions. However:

to achieve a justification to use the PINAL/Pinal county court to harm :i-man-beneficiary, et al. by directly violating :i-man, et al. and then using the Arizona state Superior court to help hide the obligations PINAL/Pinal county has under the 2017 May-June 8th Contract.

29. 2019: November 2018 to now January 2019: Because :i (et al.) were threatened, much of :my, et al. time and resources have been consumed with the stress of our standing against the PINAL/county machine, while efforts to respond to the concerted efforts of people even includes the Clerk of Court, – in what presents to be an in-Arizona-Superior-concert- protected PINAL/Pinal county abuse machine.

30. 2019: January: i-man believe there is greater need for the integrity in the ARIZONA/Arizona state- PINAL/Pinal county system.

Common Law- Court Of Record- Trial-By-Jury To Determination Of The Facts And The Law

31. For the fairness for :i-man, the right of a court-of-record with the trial-by-jury is essential to decide the issues of the law and the facts for this matter greater than $20.00, and for the interference with a man's rights by the violations by the PINAL/Pinal trustee with apparent ARIZONA/Arizona state Superior court assistance against :i-man: Jay-Roy: Ingold.

32. How can the issue to be soundly left to the frank fraud-demonstrated in this matter? – as that which starts in fraud ends in fraud.

33. I believe that the common law- court-of-record with the trial-by-jury for to decide the issues of the law and the facts in this matter under the immensity of the fraud-demonstrated in this circumstance is unavoidable, reasonable, prudent, lawful and necessary by :my right to protect :i- man-beneficiary, et al. injured, and with this response :i request the same common law- court-of-record with the trial-by-jury for to decide the issues of the law and the facts in this matter.

602 Addressing

Overview

1.0 Elements of Addressing

1.1 Clear Space
A clear space must be available on all mail for the address, postage (permit imprint, postage stamp, or meter stamp), postmarks, and postal endorsements.

1.2 Delivery Address
The delivery address specifies the location to which the USPS is to deliver a mailpiece. Except for mail prepared with detached address labels under 4.0, the piece must have the address of the intended recipient, visible and legible, only on the side of the piece bearing postage.

1.3 Address Elements
All mail not bearing a simplified address must bear a delivery address that contains at least the following elements in this order from the top line:

a. Intended recipient's name or other identification.

b. Private mailbox designator ("PMB" or alternative "#") and number if the mailpiece is addressed to a commercial mail receiving agency (CMRA) address.

c. Street and number. (Include the apartment number, or use the Post Office box number, or general delivery, or rural route or highway contract route designation and box number, as applicable.)

d. City and state (or state abbreviation). The city is any acceptable mailing name for the 5-digit ZIP Code serving the intended recipient as shown in the USPS City State Product.

e. ZIP Code where required:

1. ZIP Codes are required on Priority Mail Express, commercial First-Class Mail, First-Class Package Service — Commercial, Periodicals, USPS Marketing Mail, Package Services and Parcel Select mailpieces, all mail sent to military addresses within the United States and to APO and FPO addresses, official mail, Business Reply Mail, and merchandise return service mail.

2. Unless required above, ZIP Codes may be omitted from single-piece price First-Class Mail (including Priority Mail), First-Class Package Service — Retail, USPS Retail Ground, and pieces bearing a simplified address.

1.4 Complete Addresses

1.4.1 Complete Address Definition

A complete address has all the address elements necessary to allow an exact match with the current USPS ZIP+4 Product to obtain the finest level of ZIP+4 code for the delivery address. A complete address may be required on mail at some automation prices.

1.4.2 Complete Address Elements

A complete delivery address includes:

a. Addressee name or other identifier and/or firm name where applicable.

b. Private mail box designator and number (PMB 300 or #300).

c. Urbanization name (Puerto Rico only, ZIP Code prefixes 006 to 009, if area is so designated).

d. Street number and name (including predirectional, suffix, and postdirectional as shown in USPS ZIP+4 Product for the delivery address or rural route and box number (RR 5 BOX 10), highway contract route and box number (HC 4 BOX 45), or Post Office box number (PO BOX 458), as shown in USPS ZIP+4 Product for the delivery address). ("PO Box" is used incorrectly if preceding a private box number, e.g., a college mailroom.)

e. Secondary address unit designator and number (such as an apartment or suite number (APT 202, STE 100)).

f. City and state (or authorized two-letter state abbreviation). Use only city names and city and state name abbreviations as shown in USPS City State Product. Contact the National Customer Support Center (see 509.1.0) for more information about the City State Product.

g. Correct 5-digit ZIP Code or ZIP+4 code. If a firm name is assigned a unique ZIP+4 code in the USPS ZIP+4 Product, the unique ZIP+4 code must be used in the delivery address.

1.5 Return Addresses

1.5.1 Purpose for Return Address

The return address tells the USPS where the sender of a mailpiece wants it returned if the piece cannot be delivered.

1.5.2 Return Address Elements

The return address contains elements corresponding to those for the delivery address. A return address is required in specific circumstances (see 1.5.3). If the sender's name is not included in the return address, another clear designation

The obsolete argot of the underworld was deleted as suggested by Hon. Emerich B. Freed, United States district judge, in a paper read before the 1944 Judicial Conference for the sixth circuit in which he said:

A brief reference to §1341, which proposes to reenact the present section covering the use of the mails to defraud. This section is almost a page in length, is involved, and contains a great deal of superfluous language, including such terms as "sawdust swindle, green articles, green coin, green goods and green cigars." This section could be greatly simplified, and now-meaningless language eliminated.

The other surplusage was likewise eliminated and the section simplified without change of meaning.

A reference to causing to be placed any letter, etc. in any post office, or station thereof, etc. was omitted as unnecessary because of definition of "principal" in section 2 of this title.

This section [section 34] corrects a typographical error in section 1341 of title 18, U.S.C.

Amendments

2008- inserted "occurs in relation to, or involving any benefit authorized, transported, transmitted, transferred, disbursed, or paid in connection with, a presidentially declared major disaster or emergency (as those terms are defined in section 102 of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 5122)), or" after "If the violation".

2002- substituted "20 years" for "five years".

1994- §330016(1)(H), substituted "fined under this title" for "fined not more than $1,000" after "thing, shall be".

§250006, inserted "or deposits or causes to be deposited any matter or thing whatever to be sent or delivered by any private or commercial interstate carrier," after "Postal Service," and "or such carrier" after "causes to be delivered by mail".

1990- substituted "30" for "20" before "years".

1989- inserted at end "If the violation affects a financial institution, such person shall be fined not more than $1,000,000 or imprisoned not more than 20 years, or both."

1970- substituted "Postal Service" for "Post Otfice Department".

the Pinal county agents in their pursuit of this private- non-political- commercial-gain according to the man: Craig: Deputy- County- Attorney- Cameron's filings wherein he is asking the Pinal- county Superior Court- Clerk trustee for more collusion, even to file a :default in favor of the Pinal- county for the non- answer or response, which appears to be in competition with the trustee's duties and obligations to the people; - and, lane threatening the :habitat of the living-souls on and about the private land in the Arizona state territory at the: Jay-Roy's home area: 5124 East 18th Avenue, Apache Junction, Arizona state territory, etc. Further,

17. :i- man believe commercial-capital-gains is the Pinal- county's- focus. :i- man believe that this :whole- intent was purely for a Pinal- county-commercial- gain at the deprivation of the man's -right to live in :peace, and to totally for their homogeneity upon the man- :Jay-Roy, and thus onto :i- man- :Darrell-James: Hill -: beneficiary, et al.

18. :i- man belief that the Pinal- county -avoidance of the June 8th, 2017 contract is for the imposition of their goal of: gaining-further-access to the subsequent damage upon the man- :Jay-Roy, and upon :i- man- :Darrell-James: Hill, et al, at this time. :i- man believe that from the June 8th, 2017 Contract- unto- now that the Pinal- county- agent-trespasses and wrong-doings solely involved the making of the commercial complaint with no claim against a living man: Jay-Roy's right to answer the Pinal- county complaint solely based-upon the avoidance of the Pinal- county- obligation to the June 8th, 2017 Contract agreement; that is, a cost of :one- ounce of :silver U.S. dollar per minute beginning at the April 5th, 2017, 5:00 p.m. and ending when this matter is resolved.

19. :i- man believe that the matter of the June 8th, 2017 contract is an equity-venue matter. :i- man believe that the matter of the June 8th, 2017 contract is an equity-venue matter that is now ignored in the the Pinal- county- agents by :denial of :due process, and by the :push for the Pinal- county -Clerk- of-the-Superior court to assure the :deprivation of :rights of a man-beneficiary in a commercial court that does not see nor hear the man- :Jay-Roy's or acknowledge his right of common access to the court that is the protected due process and jurisdiction. By the bold and desperate- collusion to cover-up the un-Lawful and illegal unjust commercial gains, violations are exposed, and the retaliation against the man- :Jay-Roy, et al., is this systematic injury, and, consequentially, begets more injury upon :i- man-beneficiary: Darrell-James: Hill.

20. :Remedy: For the safety and protection of :i- man-beneficiary: Darrell-James: Hill, et al., :i- man require that a court-of-record with trial-by-jury be the mechanism to try the claims of the the Pinal- county and of the man- :Jay-Roy, et al., to ascertain is they are true. Additionally, :i- man require that a court-of-record with trial-by-jury be convened to try the claims of the facts and the law of the June 8th, 2017 contract to ascertain which matters of the fact and the contract between the man- :Jay-Roy and the Pinal- county, et al.- agents' are right and just.

21. If the Pinal- county, et al., -court chooses to ignore the subsequently injured party: i- man- :Darrell-James: Hill, et al. for their sake of sustaining to themselves more non-political capital gains by the denial-of-due-process and default process in place against the man: Jay-Roy: Ingold then :i- man- :Darrell-James: Hill do not consent to being in anyway considered to be accepting of that wrong-doing, and :i- man in no wise concede any rights-executed or to be executed against any such perpetrators. And, upon the cause that this matter between the man: Pinal- county and the man- :Jay-Roy: Ingold defaults for the corruption that is predetermined, :i- man: Darrell-James: Hill do not consent to the Pinal- county corruption, and all of my property will be immune

2017 agreement which they activated :contract on :June 8th, 2017 with the man: Jay-Roy: Ingold by the authority of your community-development-mechanism- :commercial-: offer? :Jay-Roy, in the accordance with Arizona Law and statute, was formally denied the right to opt-out of the Pinal-county, et al.: community development program, a :private-:commercial-gains - :vehicle of the Pinal county, on June 8th, 2017.

The :Ingold- :contract now-time requires the :Pinal county, et seq. to pay to the :man: Jay-Roy: Ingold the :amount of :one- :one-ounce silver U.S. dollar per the minute for these continued- actions, as indicated in the contract. – i.e., starting on: April 5, 2017: 5:00 p.m. until this :matter is resolved – (EXAMPLE BILL CALCULATION: 365 days/ year x 24 hours/day x 60 minutes/ hour/day = 525,600 minutes/hour/day/year)– if the :deprivation-of- :rights-abuses did not cease and desist on :June 8th, 2017: 08:30 a.m.

Now: the :man- Craig: your :Deputy county Attorney Cameron is the actor at the center of the matter of these facts which have now become none-other-than- a- :manifestation of the intent to deprive the :man- :Jay-Roy: Ingold by the denial of the man- :Jay's right(s)-executed for :Jay-Roy, et al., to live in the peace on his private- :property, et seq.

As indicated in the appended document, :i- man: Darrell-James: Hill-beneficiary am the steward(s) (with: wife: Beverly) by a :private- :contract on the :Jay-Roy: Ingold- private-property, and :i- man now have additionally been drawn directly into this matter as a :private- :man- :beneficiary and made-subject on :your-behalf by :your-:agent: Craig: Attorney Cameron. The appended document of the right-executed, The right of Consuance..., establishes the :fact that :i-man and :wife: Beverly-Jean: Romero- Hill-beneficiary, have now been made targets, even: collateral-damage, by the man: Craig: your- :Attorney-agent(s).

:You have now been made aware of :this wrong-doing- :man- abuse by your authority.

:You have now been made aware of :this, that your authorization has been used to do-wrong against private people and civilians-: i-man: Darrell-James: Hill, and Beverly-Jean: Romero- Hill. All that remains to be known-now :is, 'Is :this wrong-doing :your :manly-:intent? Is this the :policy of the Pinal- county-, Board-of-Supervisors?

In :Conclusion, If :i- man-beneficiary may suggest

:i- man believe that :it is in the best long- and short- term interests of all parties that this matter goes-away now; the :pursuit of :doing-wrong is never profitable. :i- man observe to suggest that: because this-type- :malfeasance is never good, through your management :this matter is best withdrawn and amicably settled-and-closed. This serves to the advantage of all parties, the man: Jay-Roy: Ingold, et al., and the people of :Pinal county.

EMANCIPATION. An act by which a person, who was once in the power of another, is rendered free. By the laws of Louisiana, minors may be emancipated. Emancipation is express or implied.
2. Express emancipation. The minor may be emancipated by his father, or, if be has no father, by his mother, under certain restrictions. This emancipation takes place by the declaration, to that effect, of the father or mother, before a notary public, in the presence of two witnesses. The orphan minor may, likewise, be emancipated by the judge, but not before he has arrived at the full age of eighteen years, if the family meeting, called to that effect, be of opinion that he is able to administer his property. The minor may be emancipated against the will of his father and mother, when they ill treat him excessively, refuse him support, or give him corrupt example.

day. A division of time. It is natural, and then it consists of twenty-four hours, or the space of time which elapses while the earth makes a complete revolution on its axis; or artificial, which contains the time, from the rising until the setting of the sun, and a short time before rising and after setting. Vide Night; and Co. Lit. 135, a.

27 Idem-sonans means: IDEM SONANS. Sounding the same.
2. In pleadings, when a name which it is material to state, is wrongly spelled, yet if it be idem sonans with that proved, it is sufficient, as Segrave for Seagrave, 2 Str. the consent of the owner; example, when a man pays a debt which could not be properly called his own, but which nevertheless it was his interest to pay, or which he might have been compelled to pay for another, the law subrogates him to all the rights of the creditor. Vide 2 Binn. Rep. 382; White's L. C. in Eq.* 60-72. 3. That which arises by the act of law joined to the act of the debtor; as, when the debtor borrows money expressly to pay off his debt, and with the intention of substituting the lender in the place of the old creditor. 7 Toull. liv. 3, t. 3, c. 5, sect. 1, §2. Vide Civ. Code of Louisiana, art. 2155 to 2158; Merl. Repert. h. t.; Dig. lib. 20; Code, lib. 8, t. 18 et 19 9 Watts. R. 451; 6 Watts & Serg. 190; 2 Bouv. Inst. n. 1413.

29 Ibid 19; ':berth-date' means: the 28th day, November, year of our Lord 1958 A.D., in the 244th year of the United States.
Berth: (v.) 1660s, of ships, from berth (n.). Of persons (intransitive), from 1886. Related: Berthed; berthing.
berth (n.) 1620s, "convenient sea room" (both for ships and sailors), of uncertain origin, probably from bear (v.) + abstract noun suffix -th (2) as in strength, health, etc. Original sense is preserved in phrase to give (something or someone) wide berth. Meaning "place on a ship to stow chests, room for sailors" is from 1706; extended to non-nautical situations by 1778.
Date. The designation or indication in an instrument of writing, of the time, and usually of the time and place, when and where it was made. When the place is mentioned in the date of a deed, the law intends, unless the contrary appears, that it was executed at the place of the date. Plowd. 7 b., 31 H. VI. This word is derived from the Latin datum, because when deeds and agreements were written in that language, immediately before the day, month and year in which they were made, was set down, it was usual to put the word datum, given.
2. All writings ought to bear a date, and in some it is indispensable in order to make them valid, as in policies of insurance; but the date in these instruments is not inserted in the body of the writing because as each subscription makes a separate contract, each underwriter sets down the day, month and year he makes his subscription. Marsh. Ins. 336.
3. Deeds, and other writings, when the date is an impossible one, take effect from the time of deliver; the presumption of law is, that the deed was dated on the day it bears date, unless, as just mentioned, the time is impossible; for example, the 32d day of January.
4. The proper way of dating, is to put the day, month, and year of our Lord; the hour need not be mentioned, unless specially required; an instance of which may be taken from the Pennsylvania Act of the 16th June, 1836, sect. 40, which requires the sheriff, on receiving a writ of fieri facias, or other writ of execution, to endorse thereon the day of the month, the year, and the hour of the day whereon he received the same.
5. In public documents, it is usual to give not only the day, the month, and the year of our Lord, but also the year of the United States, when issued by authority of the general government; or of the commonwealth, when issued under its authority. Vide, generally, Bac. Ab. Obligations, C; Com. Dig, Fait, B 3; Cruise, Dig. tit, 32, c. 20, s. 1-6; 1 Burr. 60; 2 Rol. Ab. 27, 1. 22; 13 Vin. Ab. 34; Dane's Ab. Index, h. t. See Almanac.

RE: Declaration by :i- man -beneficiary -primary-creditor to the Trustee of the 'Emergency Banking Act of 1933' -:indenture to :require/request/demand for the Restoration of :all- :property post-haste with the Accounting provided to :i-man: Darrell-James: Hill, et al. (See: Equity-Claim :Presentment: Express Trust: Emergency Banking Act of 1933 A.D. -Trust[1], USPS RE 047 610 440 US -:May 15th, 2020 A.D.; appended: 9 pages).

Greetings :Mark, et al.

In the Law, :Sheriffs are the :guardians of the liberty in this republic.

As the appended -document indicates, the 'Emergency Banking Act of 1933' has been completed since 2003 A.D., after 70 years. The :principal-property ought-to-have-been conveyed back at a time no-later-than 2013 A.D.; but, what is a trustee that steals the principal-property? The present :trustee's duty and obligation under his oath-of-office is to the non-competition and absolute protection to the return of :all of the principal-property post-haste. For this reason, :you have been notified.

:i- man request that you assure that this document is noticed by :you, and be placed into the permanent record of the RTCC to aid in the safety of :i- man -civilian in the pursuit to safe-guard against this massive theft of the property from the literally defunct- 'New Deal' -trust of 1933; that the property-held-without-right it will be conveyed- back to The united States of America- ;people.

:i- man pray for your righteous actions.

The 'Emergency Banking Act of 1933', 'EBA-1933-A.D.', bonded as :surety :all of the people of The United States of America, replaced the strict organic :constitution -obligation with the 'new deal' of the compelled color of law, fiat currency and the :public-education system that effectively assures an ignorant progeny[10].

PRESENTMENT to: Donald-John :POTUS- Trustee, et al.
I) :i- man believe that the copy of the PRESENTMENT, appended, is the evidence of the :exercise by the right by :i- man for to -settle and close the EBA-1933-A.D.- dry trust -agreement according to the contract with the Obligor- Trustee, the : 'UNITED-STATES Incorporated'- Trustee, -government- services -provider, 'US-Inc.':
a) The EBA-1933-A.D -emergency is abated;
b) the :period of the bankruptcy is completed; and:
c) :i- man- civilian have required/requested/demanded/ordered the :man under oath-of-offices for to settle-and-close the :accounts for :i- man by :clear- intent and with :all -documentation and truth in :authenticity.

- The :man -:POTUS- Trustee received[11] the :authenticated-debenture for :i- man with the required demand/order to settle-and-close.
- The :man -:USAG- Alien property custodian and Common law trustee received[12] the demand to settle-and-close.
- The :man -:Secretary of Treasury- IMF liaison received[13] the demand to settle-and-close.

II) i- man believe that this :settle and closure -requirement/request/demand/order is a matter not subject to the exigencies nor discretion of the man -:POTUSA -CIC.; rather, III) i- man believe that this is merely the conclusion to the :EBA-1933-A.D. -dry-trust -:contract between :i- man and the US-Inc.
IV) Whereas the spirit of The Constitution for the United States of America is to protect,

10 :ignorant -progeny means: 1) We do not know who we are; and: 2) we sustain to ourselves the :subverted- patterns of :seventy- year -bankruptcy- cycles. That is: the Declaration of Independence pronounced the united states of America that set :all -men free. However, The Constitution for the United States of America established the :legalized - murder and slavery of :millions of :Negroes; the :effect was ill-fated. – The American Civil War bankrupted the nation, and evolved today under the Lieber code. day. A division of time. It is natural, and then it consists of twenty-four hours, or the space of time which elapses while the earth makes a complete revolution on its axis; or artificial, which contains the time, from the rising until the setting of the sun, and a short time before rising and after setting. the consent of the owner; example, when a man pays a debt which could not be properly called his own, but which nevertheless it was his interest to pay, or which he might have been compelled to pay for another, the law subrogates him to all the rights of the creditor. Vide 2 Binn. Rep. 382; White's L. C. in Eq.* 60-72. 3. That which arises by the act of law joined to the act of the debtor; as, when the debtor borrows money expressly to pay off his debt, and with the intention of substituting the lender in the place of the old creditor. 7 Toull. liv. 3, t. 3, c. 5, sect. 1, §2. 29 Ibid 19; ':berth-date' means: the 28th day, November, year of our Lord 1958 A.D., in the 244th year of the United States.
Berth: (v.) 1660s, of ships, from berth (n.). Of persons (intransitive), from 1886. Related: Berthed; berthing.
berth (n.) 1620s, "convenient sea room" (both for ships and sailors), of uncertain origin, probably from bear (v.) + abstract noun suffix -th (2) as in strength, health, etc. Original sense is preserved in phrase to give (something or someone) wide berth. Meaning "place on a ship to stow chests, room for sailors" is from 1706; extended to non-nautical situations by 1778.
Date. The designation or indication in an instrument of writing, of the time, and usually of the time and place, when and where it was made. When the place is mentioned in the date of a deed, the law intends, unless the contrary appears, that it was executed at the place of the date. Plowd. 7 b., 31 H. VI. This word is derived from the Latin datum, because when deeds and agreements were written in that language, immediately before the day, month and year in which they were made, was set down, it was usual to put the word datum, given.
2. All writings ought to bear a date, and in some it is indispensable in order to make them valid, as in policies of insurance; but the date in these instruments is not inserted in the body of the writing because as each subscription makes a separate contract, each underwriter sets down the day, month and year he makes his subscription. Marsh. Ins. 336.
3. Deeds, and other writings, when the date is an impossible one, take effect from the time of deliver; the presumption of law is, that the deed was dated on the day it bears date, unless, as just mentioned, the time is impossible; for example, the 32d day of January.
4. The proper way of dating, is to put the day, month, and year of our Lord; the hour need not be mentioned, unless specially required; an instance of which may be taken from the Pennsylvania Act of the 16th June, 1836, sect. 40, which requires the sheriff, on receiving a writ of fieri facias, or other writ of execution, to endorse thereon the day of the month, the year, and the hour of the day whereon he received the same.
5. In public documents, it is usual to give not only the day, the month, and the year of our Lord, but also the year of the United States, when issued by authority of the general government; or of the commonwealth, when issued under its authority. Vide, generally, Bac. Ab. Obligations, C; Com. Dig, Fait, B 3; Cruise, Dig. tit, 32, c. 20, s. 1-6; 1 Burr. 60; 2 Rol. Ab. 27, 1. 22; 13 Vin. Ab. 34; Dane's Ab. Index, h. t. See Almanac.

day. A division of time. It is natural, and then it consists of twenty-four hours, or the space of time which elapses while the earth makes a complete revolution on its axis; or artificial, which contains the time, from the rising until the setting of the sun, and a short time before rising and after setting. Vide Night; and Co. Lit. 135, a.

3. The law, generally, rejects fractions of days, but in some cases it takes notice of such parts. 2 B. & A. 586. Vide Date.

27 Idem-sonans means: IDEM SONANS. Sounding the same.

2. In pleadings, when a name which it is material to state, is wrongly spelled, yet if it be idem sonans with that proved, it is sufficient, as Segrave for Seagrave, 2 Str. R. 889; Keen for Keene, Thach. Cr. Cas. 67; Deadema for Diadema, 2 Ired. 346; Hutson for Hudson, 7 Miss. R. 142; Coonrad for Conrad, 8 Miss. R. 291. See 5 Pike, 72; 6 Ala. the consent of the owner; example, when a man pays a debt which could not be properly called his own, but which nevertheless it was his interest to pay, or which he might have been compelled to pay for another, the law subrogates him to all the rights of the creditor. Vide 2 Binn. Rep. 382; White's L. C. in Eq.* 60-72. 3. That which arises by the act of law joined to the act of the debtor; as, when the debtor borrows money expressly to pay off his debt, and with the intention of substituting the lender in the place of the old creditor. 7 Toull. liv. 3, t. 3, c. 5, sect. 1, §2. Vide Civ. Code of Louisiana, art. 2155 to 2158; Merl. Repert. h. t.; Dig. lib. 20; Code, lib. 8, t. 18 et 19 9 Watts. R. 451; 6 Watts & Serg. 190; 2 Bouv. Inst. n. 1413.

29 Ibid 19; ':berth-date' means: the 28th day, November, year of our Lord 1958 A.D., in the 244th year of the United States.
Berth: (v.) 1660s, of ships, from berth (n.). Of persons (intransitive), from 1886. Related: Berthed; berthing.
berth (n.) 1620s, "convenient sea room" (both for ships and sailors), of uncertain origin, probably from bear (v.) + abstract noun suffix -th (2) as in strength, health, etc. Original sense is preserved in phrase to give (something or someone) wide berth. Meaning "place on a ship to stow chests, room for sailors" is from 1706; extended to non-nautical situations by 1778.
Date. The designation or indication in an instrument of writing, of the time, and usually of the time and place, when and where it was made. When the place is mentioned in the date of a deed, the law intends, unless the contrary appears, that it was executed at the place of the date. Plowd. 7 b., 31 H. VI. This word is derived from the Latin datum, because when deeds and agreements were written in that language, immediately before the day, month and year in which they were made, was set down, it was usual to put the word datum, given.
2. All writings ought to bear a date, and in some it is indispensable in order to make them valid, as in policies of insurance, but the date in these instruments is not inserted in the body of the writing because as each subscription makes a separate contract, each underwriter sets down the day, month and year he makes his subscription. Marsh. Ins. 336.
3. Deeds, and other writings, when the date is an impossible one, take effect from the time of deliver; the presumption of law is, that the deed was dated on the day it bears date, unless, as just mentioned, the time is impossible; for example, the 32d day of January.
4. The proper way of dating, is to put the day, month, and year of our Lord; the hour need not be mentioned, unless specially required; an instance of which may be taken from the Pennsylvania Act of the 16th June, 1836, sect. 40, which requires the sheriff, on receiving a writ of fieri facias, or other writ of execution, to endorse thereon the day of the month, the year, and the hour of the day whereon he received the same.
5. In public documents, it is usual to give not only the day, the month, and the year of our Lord, but also the year of the United States, when issued by authority of the general government; or of the commonwealth, when issued under its authority. Vide, generally, Bac. Ab. Obligations, C; Com. Dig, Fait, B 3; Cruise, Dig. tit, 32, c. 20, s. 1-6; 1 Burr. 60; 2 Rol. Ab. 27, 1. 22; 13 Vin. Ab. 34; Dane's Ab. Index, h. t. See Almanac.

30 :non-political -:over-standing -aggregate means: the body of people from whom :government is derived; also, :non-actors/citizens in the daily administration of the government service.

Greetings Mark-Alexander, :John-Earl, :James-Charles, David-Hilberry, :Michael-Martin, :David-Lee, :John-William, :Joseph-Lauren, :Karl-Leo

:i- man pray for your righteous actions.

The 'Emergency Banking Act of 1933', 'EBA-1933-A.D.', bonded as :surety :all of the people of The United States of America, replaced the strict organic :constitution -obligation with the 'new deal' of the compelled color of law, fiat currency and the :public-education system that effectively assures an ignorant progeny[10].

PRESENTMENT to: Donald-John :POTUS- Trustee, et al.
I) :i- man believe that the copy of the PRESENTMENT, appended, is the evidence of the :exercise by the right by :i- man for to -settle and close the EBA-1933-A.D.- dry trust -agreement according to the contract with the Obligor- Trustee, the : 'UNITED-STATES Incorporated'- Trustee, -government- services -provider, 'US-Inc.':
a) The EBA-1933-A.D -emergency is abated;
b) the :period of the bankruptcy is completed; and:
c) :i- man- civilian have required/requested/demanded/ordered the :man under oath-of-offices for to settle-and-close the :accounts for :i- man by :clear- intent and with :all -documentation and truth in :authenticity.

- The :man -:POTUS- Trustee received[11] the :authenticated-debenture for :i- man with the required demand/order to settle-and-close.
- The :man -:USAG- Alien property custodian and Common law trustee received[12] the demand to settle-and-close.
- The :man -:Secretary of Treasury- IMF liaison received[13] the demand to settle-and-close.

II) i- man believe that this :settle and closure -requirement/request/demand/order is a matter not subject to the exigencies nor discretion of the man -:POTUSA -CIC.; rather, III) i- man believe that this is merely the conclusion to the :EBA-1933-A.D. -dry-trust -:contract between :i- man and the US-Inc.
IV) Whereas the spirit of The Constitution for the United States of America is to protect,

10 :ignorant -progeny means: 1) We do not know who we are; and: 2) we sustain to ourselves the :subverted- patterns of :seventy- year -bankruptcy- cycles. That is: the Declaration of Independence pronounced the united states of America that set :all -men free. However, The Constitution for the United States of America established the :legalized - murder and slavery of :millions of :Negroes; the :effect was ill-fated. – The American Civil War bankrupted the nation, and evolved today under the Lieber code. The Negro was set "free" but unto legalized :socio-institutional -despise, scorn and undermine; again, the :effect was ill-fated.

support and defend this :demand for the restoration of the private right and property, and, as :one ought not to prejudice the :right and property of :i- man for the :commercial -benefit to any :man -:government-services-provider;

In the Law, :Sheriffs are the :guardians of the liberty in this republic.

As the appended -document indicates, the 'Emergency Banking Act of 1933' has been completed since 2003 A.D., after 70 years. The :principal-property ought-to-have-been conveyed back at a time no-later-than 2013 A.D.; but, what is a trustee that steals the principal-property? The present :trustee's duty and obligation under his oath-of-office is to the non-competition and absolute protection to the return of :all of the principal-property post-haste. For this reason, :you have been notified.

:i- man request that you assure that this document is noticed by :you, and be placed into the permanent record of the RTCC to aid in the safety of :i- man -civilian in the pursuit to safe-guard against this massive theft of the property from the literally defunct- 'New Deal' -trust of 1933; that the property-held-without-right it will be conveyed- back to The united States of America- ;people.

It is the substitution (q. v.) of a new for an old creditor, and the succession to his rights, which is called subrogation; transfusio unius creditoris in alium. It is precisely the reverse of delegation. (q. v.)

2. There are three kinds of subrogation: 1. That made by the owner of a thing of his own free will; example, when be voluntarily assigns it. 2. That which arises in consequence of the law, even without the consent of the owner; example, when a man pays a debt which could not be properly called his own, but which nevertheless it was his interest to pay, or which he might have been compelled to pay for another, the law subrogates him to all the rights of the creditor. Vide 2 Binn. Rep. 382; White's L. C. in Eq.* 60-72. 3. That which arises by the act of law joined to the act of the debtor; as, when the debtor borrows money expressly to pay off his debt, and with the intention of substituting the lender in the place of the old creditor. 7 Toull. liv. 3, t. 3, c. 5, sect. 1, §2. Vide Civ. Code of Louisiana, art. 2155 to 2158; Merl. Repert. h. t.; Dig. lib. 20; Code, lib. 8, t. 18 et 19 9 Watts. R. 451; 6 Watts & Serg. 190; 2 Bouv. Inst. n. 1413.

29 Ibid 19; ':berth-date' means: the 28th day, November, year of our Lord 1958 A.D., in the 244th year of the United States.
Berth: (v.) 1660s, of ships, from berth (n.). Of persons (intransitive), from 1886. Related: Berthed; berthing.
berth (n.) 1620s, "convenient sea room" (both for ships and sailors), of uncertain origin, probably from bear (v.) + abstract noun suffix -th (2) as in strength, health, etc. Original sense is preserved in phrase to give (something or someone) wide berth. Meaning "place on a ship to stow chests, room for sailors" is from 1706; extended to non-nautical situations by 1778.
Date. The designation or indication in an instrument of writing, of the time, and usually of the time and place, when and where it was made. When the place is mentioned in the date of a deed, the law intends, unless the contrary appears, that it was executed at the place of the date. Plowd. 7 b., 31 H. VI. This word is derived from the Latin datum, because when deeds and agreements were written in that language, immediately before the day, month and year in which they were made, was set down, it was usual to put the word datum, given.
2. All writings ought to bear a date, and in some it is indispensable in order to make them valid, as in policies of insurance; but the date in these instruments is not inserted in the body of the writing because as each subscription makes a separate contract, each underwriter sets down the day, month and year he makes his subscription. Marsh. Ins. 336.
3. Deeds, and other writings, when the date is an impossible one, take effect from the time of deliver; the presumption of law is, that the deed was dated on the day it bears date, unless, as just mentioned, the time is impossible; for example, the 32d day of January.
4. The proper way of dating, is to put the day, month, and year of our Lord; the hour need not be mentioned, unless specially required; an instance of which may be taken from the Pennsylvania Act of the 16th June, 1836, sect. 40, which requires the sheriff, on receiving a writ of fieri facias, or other writ of execution, to endorse thereon the day of the month, the year, and the hour of the day whereon he received the same.
5. In public documents, it is usual to give not only the day, the month, and the year of our Lord, but also the year of the United States, when issued by authority of the general government; or of the commonwealth, when issued under its authority. Vide, generally, Bac. Ab. Obligations, C; Com. Dig, Fait, B 3; Cruise, Dig. tit, 32, c. 20, s. 1-6; 1 Burr. 60; 2 Rol. Ab. 27, 1. 22; 13 Vin. Ab. 34; Dane's Ab. Index, h. t. See Almanac.

30 :non-political -:over-standing -aggregate means: the body of people from whom :government is derived; also, :non-actors/citizens in the daily administration of the government service.

31 :Ambassador means: Ibid 7.

the consent of the owner; example, when a man pays a debt which could not be properly called his own, but which nevertheless it was his interest to pay, or which he might have been compelled to pay for another, the law subrogates him to all the rights of the creditor. Vide 2 Binn. Rep. 382; White's L. C. in Eq.* 60-72. 3. That which arises by the act of law joined to the act of the debtor; as, when the debtor borrows money expressly to pay off his debt, and with the intention of substituting the lender in the place of the old creditor. 7 Toull. liv. 3, t. 3, c. 5, sect. 1, §2. Vide Civ. Code of Louisiana, art. 2155 to 2158; Merl. Repert. h. t.; Dig. lib. 20; Code, lib. 8, t. 18 et 19 9 Watts. R. 451; 6 Watts & Serg. 190; 2 Bouv. Inst. n. 1413.

29 Ibid 19; ':berth-date' means: the 28th day, November, year of our Lord 1958 A.D., in the 244th year of the United States.

Berth: (v.) 1660s, of ships, from berth (n.). Of persons (intransitive), from 1886. Related: Berthed; berthing.

berth (n.) 1620s, "convenient sea room" (both for ships and sailors), of uncertain origin, probably from bear (v.) + abstract noun suffix -th (2) as in strength, health, etc. Original sense is preserved in phrase to give (something or someone) wide berth. Meaning "place on a ship to stow chests, room for sailors" is from 1706; extended to non-nautical situations by 1778.

Date. The designation or indication in an instrument of writing, of the time, and usually of the time and place, when and where it was made. When the place is mentioned in the date of a deed, the law intends, unless the contrary appears, that it was executed at the place of the date. Plowd. 7 b., 31 H. VI. This word is derived from the Latin datum, because when deeds and agreements were written in that language, immediately before the day, month and year in which they were made, was set down, it was usual to put the word datum, given.

2. All writings ought to bear a date, and in some it is indispensable in order to make them valid, as in policies of insurance; but the date in these instruments is not inserted in the body of the writing because as each subscription makes a separate contract, each underwriter sets down the day, month and year he makes his subscription. Marsh. Ins. 336.

3. Deeds, and other writings, when the date is an impossible one, take effect from the time of deliver; the presumption of law is, that the deed was dated on the day it bears date, unless, as just mentioned, the time is impossible; for example, the 32d day of January.

4. The proper way of dating, is to put the day, month, and year of our Lord; the hour need not be mentioned, unless specially required; an instance of which may be taken from the Pennsylvania Act of the 16th June, 1836, sect. 40, which requires the sheriff, on receiving a writ of fieri facias, or other writ of execution, to endorse thereon the day of the month, the year, and the hour of the day whereon he received the same.

5. In public documents, it is usual to give not only the day, the month, and the year of our Lord, but also the year of the United States, when issued by authority of the general government; or of the commonwealth, when issued under its authority. Vide, generally, Bac. Ab. Obligations, C; Com. Dig, Fait, B 3; Cruise, Dig. tit, 32, c. 20, s. 1-6; 1 Burr. 60; 2 Rol. Ab. 27, 1. 22; 13 Vin. Ab. 34; Dane's Ab. Index, h. t. See Almanac.

30 :non-political -:over-standing -aggregate means: the body of people from whom :government is derived; also, :non-actors/citizens in the daily administration of the government service.

31 :Ambassador means: Ibid 7.

18 Subrogation means: SUBROGATION, civil law, contracts. The act of putting by a transfer, a person in the place of another, or a thing in the place of another thing. It is the substitution (q. v.) of a new for an old creditor, and the succession to his rights, which is called subrogation; transfusio unius creditoris in alium. It is precisely the reverse of delegation. (q. v.)

2. There are three kinds of subrogation: 1. That made by the owner of a thing of his own free will; example, when be voluntarily assigns it. 2. That which arises in consequence of the law, even without the consent of the owner; example, when a man pays a debt which could not be properly called his own, but which nevertheless it was his interest to pay, or which he might have been compelled to pay for another, the law subrogates him to all the rights of the creditor. Vide 2 Binn. Rep. 382; White's L. C. in Eq.* 60-72. 3. That which arises by the act of law joined to the act of the debtor; as, when the debtor borrows money expressly to pay off his debt, and with the intention of substituting the lender in the place of the old creditor. 7 Toull. liv. 3, t. 3, c. 5, sect. 1, §2. Vide Civ. Code of Louisiana, art. 2155 to 2158; Merl. Repert. h. t.; Dig. lib. 20; Code, lib. 8, t. 18 et 19 9 Watts. R. 451; 6 Watts & Serg. 190; 2 Bouv. Inst. n. 1413.

19 berth-date means: the 28th day, November, year of our Lord 1958 A.D., in the 244th year of the United States: Ibid 11.

Berth: (v.) 1660s, of ships, from berth (n.). Of persons (intransitive), from 1886. Related: Berthed; berthing. berth (n.) 1620s, "convenient sea room" (both for ships and sailors), of uncertain origin, probably from bear (v.) + abstract noun suffix -th (2) as in strength, health, etc. Original sense is preserved in phrase to give (something or someone) wide berth. Meaning "place on a ship to stow chests, room for sailors" is from 17 extended to non-nautical situations by 1778.

Date. The designation or indication in an instrument of writing, of the time, and usually of the time and pla when and where it was made. When the place is mentioned in the date of a deed, the law intends, unless contrary appears, that it was executed at the place of the date. Plowd. 7 b., 31 H. VI. This word is derived from the Latin datum, because when deeds and agreements were written in that language, immediately before the day, month and year in which they were made, was set down, it was usual to put the word datu given.

2. All writings ought to bear a date, and in some it is indispensable in order to make them valid, as in polic of insurance; but the date in these instruments is not inserted in the body of the writing because as each subscription makes a separate contract, each underwriter sets down the day, month and year he makes h subscription. Marsh. Ins. 336.

3. Deeds, and other writings, when the date is an impossible one, take effect from the time of deliver; the presumption of law is, that the deed was dated on the day it bears date, unless, as just mentioned, the tir impossible; for example, the 32d day of January.

4. The proper way of dating, is to put the day, month, and year of our Lord; the hour need not be mention unless specially required; an instance of which may be taken from the Pennsylvania Act of the 16th June, 1836, sect. 40, which requires the sheriff, on receiving a writ of fieri facias, or other writ of execution, to endorse thereon the day of the month, the year, and the hour of the day whereon he received the same.

5. In public documents, it is usual to give not only the day, the month, and the year of our Lord, but also t day. A division of time. It is natural, and then it consists of twenty-four hours, or the space of time which elapses while the earth makes a complete revolution on its axis; or artificial, which contains the time, from the rising until the setting of the sun, and a short time before rising and after setting. Vide Night; and Co. Lit. 135, a.

2. Days are sometimes calculated exclusively, as when an act required that an appeal should be made within twenty days after a decision. 3 Penna. 200; 3 B. & A. 581; 15 Serg. & Rawle, 43. In general, if a thing is to be done within such a time after such a fact, the day of the fact shall be taken inclusively. Hob. 139; Doug. 463; 3 T. R. 623; Com. Dig. Temps, A; 3 East, 407.

3. The law, generally, rejects fractions of days, but in some cases it takes notice of such parts. 2 B. & A. 586. Vide Date.

17 Idem-sonans means: IDEM SONANS. Sounding the same.

2. In pleadings, when a name which it is material to state, is wrongly spelled, yet if it be idem sonans with that proved, it is sufficient, as Segrave for Seagrave, 2 Str. R. 889; Keen for Keene, Thach. Cr. Cas. 67; Deadema for Diadema, 2 Ired. 346; Hutson for Hudson, 7 Miss. R. 142; Coonrad for Conrad, 8 Miss. R. 291. See 5 Pike, 72; 6 Ala. R. 679; vide also Russ. & Ry. 412; 2 Taunt. R. 401. In the following cases the variances there mentioned were declared to be fatal. Russ. & Ry. 351; 10 East, R. 83; 5 Taunt. R. 14; 1 Baldw. R. 83; 2 Crom. & M. 189; 6 Price, R. 2; 1 Chit. R. 659; 13 E. C. L. R. 194. See, generally, 8 Chit. Pr. 231, 2; 4 T. R. 611; 3 B. & P. 559; 1 Stark. R. 47; 2 Stark. R. 29; 3 Camp. 18 Subrogation means: SUBROGATION, civil law, contracts. The act of putting by a transfer, a person in the place of another, or a thing in the place of another thing. It is the substitution (q. v.) of a new for an old creditor, and the succession to his rights, which is called subrogation; transfusio unius creditoris in alium. It is precisely the reverse of delegation. (q. v.)

2. There are three kinds of subrogation: 1. That made by the owner of a thing of his own free will; example, when be voluntarily assigns it. 2. That which arises in consequence of the law, even without the consent of the owner; example, when a man pays a debt which could not be properly called his own, but which nevertheless it was his interest to pay, or which he might have been compelled to pay for another, the law subrogates him to all the rights of the creditor. Vide 2 Binn. Rep. 382; White's L. C. in Eq.* 60-72. 3. That which arises by the act of law joined to the act of the debtor; as, when the debtor borrows money expressly to pay off his debt, and with the intention of substituting the lender in the place of the old creditor. 7 Toull. liv. 3, t. 3, c. 5, sect. 1, §2. Vide Civ. Code of Louisiana, art. 2155 to 2158; Merl. Repert. h. t.; Dig. lib. 20; Code, lib. 8, t. 18 et 19 9 Watts. R. 451; 6 Watts & Serg. 190; 2 Bouv. Inst. n. 1413.

19 berth-date means: the 28th day, November, year of our Lord 1958 A.D., in the 244th year of the United States: Ibid 11.

Berth: (v.) 1660s, of ships, from berth (n.). Of persons (intransitive), from 1886. Related: Berthed; berthing. berth (n.) 1620s, "convenient sea room" (both for ships and sailors), of uncertain origin, probably from bear (v.) + abstract noun suffix -th (2) as in strength, health, etc. Original sense is preserved in phrase to give (something or someone) wide berth. Meaning "place on a ship to stow chests, room for sailors" is from 1706; extended to non-nautical situations by 1778.

Date. The designation or indication in an instrument of writing, of the time, and usually of the time and place, when and where it was made. When the place is mentioned in the date of a deed, the law intends, unless the contrary appears, that it was executed at the place of the date. Plowd. 7 b., 31 H. VI. This word is derived from the Latin datum, because when deeds and agreements were written in that language, immediately before the day, month and year in which they were made, was set down, it was usual to put the word datum, given.

2. All writings ought to bear a date, and in some it is indispensable in order to make them valid, as in policies of insurance; but the date in these instruments is not inserted in the body of the writing because as each subscription makes a separate contract, each underwriter sets down the day, month and year he makes his subscription. Marsh. Ins. 336.

3. Deeds, and other writings, when the date is an impossible one, take effect from the time of deliver; the presumption of law is, that the deed was dated on the day it bears date, unless, as just mentioned, the time is impossible; for example, the 32d day of January.

4. The proper way of dating, is to put the day, month, and year of our Lord; the hour need not be mentioned, unless specially required; an instance of which may be taken from the Pennsylvania Act of the 16th June, 1836, sect. 40, which requires the sheriff, on receiving a writ of fieri facias, or other writ of execution, to indorse thereon the day of the month, the year, and the hour of the day whereon he received the same.

5. In public documents, it is usual to give not only the day, the month, and the year of our Lord, but also the

Purgatory Oath; Lateness Of This Presentment

:I-man Affirm and Declare That The 'lateness Of This Presentment' Is Due To The Lack Of Knowledge And Ignorance Of :i-man; and, the :Trust -resources to afford the cost of this pursuit have been a) administered without authorization and b) used to impose harm and competition against :i-man -:beneficiary, et al.- children of Ysrael.

For the fact that :i-man- Adam, et al.- Judah, have been systematically -systemically -oppressed with the brutality-imposed -ignorance and assurance unto the lack of knowledge from the confederate- usurpers since on or before 1600 A.D. unto now ~2020 A.D.~ with the oversight and support for these and other harms by the Roman-Church -Usurper-Trustee -gross -malfeasance. Thereto, :i- man believe that this presentment is timely through the four centuries upon the historical accounts and recorded facts of the murder-for- annihilation for the extinction[23], and the continued abject- hostility upon :i- man, et al. - members of the House of Ysrael by the :absolute-malfeasance[24] of the pure -obligation[25] by the "Roman -Church", et al.- confederate -:impostors.

death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned: 13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law. 14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come. B) 1 Corinthians-- chap.. 15 v 21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. 22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. 23 But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. 24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. 25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. 26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. C) 1 Corinthians-- chap.. 15 v 42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: 43 It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: 44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. 45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

D – :Wrong-doing: Roman -Church -Trespassing Upon The :Children -Of -Ysrael

:Roman -Church Fraud

:i- man declare that for the last four-hundred ~400~ years or more that the annihilation with the :murders upon the House of Judah of :Ysrael unto the abject enslavement onto the American-continent, et al.- "Egypt"[26] is commonly known and well documented within the records of the decisions with the violations of the fiduciary -duty and obligation by the :non- Christian -rulers of the Roman -Church -:military -:church -regime until now. See: Magna Carta[27]. – :Thereto, that :fraud vitiates, a) the equation of the fraud is fraud in :fact from the beginning, and, b) Where as, the Roman- Church is established in fraud as an impostor then the any :Roman -Church- :papal- infallibility is merely impossible.

E – Faux- Nobility of :Esau[28] with :Saul[29], et al.- Roman -Church Identity Theft

:i- man know and believe that as :Nothing is new under the sun, so again was Satan's use of the :pagen-rulers of :Rome akin to :King Herod's oppression directly upon the infant -:Yushuah, and unto Rome's, et al's, callous deeds surrounding the immoral :sacrifice of the adult -:Yushuah~ the :lamb of the Most-High-God~; so now-again after nearly :two-thousand~2000~ years ought the Roman -Church, et al., choose life through the :repentance, changing and turning afforded to :all and them by the Messiah -:Yushuah~ Jesus-the-Christ – Almighty-God~, the :lamb of the Most-High-God.

:i- man believe that the faux- nobility amalgam of Saul with Esau, et al.- Roman -Church -:military- :church -regime -:lineage has for many centuries opportunistically and tyrannically promoted :itself to the world with the deception that either bloodline is a) in the line of the succession of the children of Jacob/Ysrael, or, that b) :either has acted in the righteous -keeping of the commandments of the Almighty-God before the billions of :soul- witnesses sojourning on Almighty-God's Earth.

F – Coveting Is Now Fraud

a) :i- man believe that for the coveting of the office of :Jacob~Ysrael that the 'Roman -Church', et al., passes-itself -off/passed-itself -off to the world as the "Holy Church[30].";
b) Both :Esau and :Saul remain complicit in the fraud and are historically unfit to lead the "Holy -Church" as a matter of :common - biblical- knowledge as adjudged by the Almighty-God;
c) The :Roman -Church to day remains unrepentant of the fiduciary-violations with the aiding, abetting, and condoning the continued brutal enslavement- for-annihilation of the 32 :Peter means: KJV- Book: 2 Peter- chap. 1 v 1 Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ: 2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, 3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue: 4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. 5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; 6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; 7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. 8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins. 10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall: 11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

33 :Paul means: KJV- Book: A) Acts- chap. 17 v Act 17:22 Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious. 23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you. 24 God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; 25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; 26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation; 27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us: 28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring. 29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device. 30 And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: 31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. B) Romans:- chap. 1 v Rom 1:1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God, 2 (Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,) 3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh; 4 And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead: 5 By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name: 6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ: 7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

34 :Adam- man- kind by the will of His father means: KJV- Book: Isaiah- chap. 58 – 61; Luke 4:

35 :Kinsman means: KJV- Book: Numbers- chap. 27 v 7 ... ye shall give his inheritance unto his kinsman that is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it: and it shall be unto the children of Israel a statute of judgment, as the LORD commanded Moses.

36 :Kinsman-redeemer means: KJV- Book: A) Exodus– chap., 6 v 2 And God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I am the LORD: 3 And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty, but by my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them. 4 And I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers. 5 And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage; and I have remembered my covenant. 6 Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judgments: 7 And I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. B) Psalms- chap.. 19 v 7 The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple. 8 The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes. 9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether. 10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb. 11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward. 12 Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults. 13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression. 14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer.

the declarations that :i- man have been-forced-made to endure damage-imposed by the Trustee-actor- Derelicts to the a) Concession-of-1213 A.D.[24] with the Roman-Church, et al[25]., and b) Declaration of Independence of 1776 A.D.[26] of the uSofA[27]- people. :Both Trust-covenants[28] distinguish that :i- man -progeny- beneficiary am the express- focus-beneficiary of the cestui-que-vie (life) -Trust-covenants: Concession-of-1213-A.D., and Declaration-of-Independence-of-1776-A.D.

Very much harm[29] is been done by the Trustees, and much property is been stolen[30] by the Trustees by the use of the doctrine[31] of :paternalism[32] and enslavement[33] characterized by satanism[34] with :profound-damage against the people-abused, even the children-of-Jacob-Ysrael, et al.- :i- man, Negro-Ysrael- people-beneficiaries and subjects of every covenant with the Most-High-God and His -ONLY- Begotten -Son, the :Messiah-Yushuah.

:The -deprivation[35] of the :unalienable[36]-rights-damages of :i- man- Darrell-James are continued in the violations of the Fiduciary-Duty-and-Obligation by the Trustee- Derelicts[37] imposing insidious[38]- paternalism-socialism and enslavement practices against :God's- chosen-people, i.e., Negro-Ysrael, et al., and the Holy-Church.

In place of the Almighty-God-given-unalienable-rights-ordained by the covenants-agreed-to, both: Jorge-Mario[39] and Donald-John, -:Trustees, use this insidious -socio-cultural -:paternalism- socialism[40] to justify any wrong-doing and abet, as socially-acceptable, the 'ends-justify-the-means' -doctrine of :any-harms against the covenant-goals of :Almighty-God after the damage upon the Negro-Ysrael- beneficiary, et al.- :i- man.

This anti-covenant-cultural-despise against the Negro-Ysrael, et al., is a sickness with the social-cultural- immorality; the doctrine of Baalim in the uSofA, where the main feature of this practice is theft-of-property -claimed and possessed[41],[42]: both the unalienable-Almighty-God-given-rights to life, liberty and property, and, specifically, :all -property. – See: Attachment C and D.

By these actions are trustee-derelicts mere thieves, daily creating harm and damage upon :i-man- beneficiary. See: :in - B#1: 'Affidavit of Distress' and B#2, the declaration of the claim, and demand for the restoration of the property-claimed and possessed that has been/is stolen by the Trustee-derelicts. In fact:

The :Trustee-derelicts have stolen very-much-property ~see B#2~ -:in the greater-than twenty-dollars U.S.-money :In-specie 'of ounces of gold and silver' -belonging to :Negro-Ysrael, et al.- e.g. from -:i- man- beneficiary. AND, for :i- man to merely begin to knowledgeably-righteously-question-to-correct this wrong-doing as is herein done, :i- man must now have-need of personal body-protection twenty-four (24) hours per day for the completion of the Almighty-God's :will-be-done by :i- man, the -simple-Almighty-God -:Ambassador -man.

Notice: Danger :i- man am now-, as of this signing, ever- more-so UNDER the THREAT from the :Derelict-Trustees -:Roman-Church and the uSofA- Constitutional- government for they love money and power, and have/do condone and/or corroborate the :deprivation/theft of the Concession-1213-A.D. and Declaration-1776-A.D.- covenant-rights, et seq., at this signing with diffuse- multi-variant harms determined upon :i- man, et al.- Negro-Ysrael, children of Jacob-Ysrael, et al., and the Holy-Church.

G6 The ROMAN-CHURCH-TRUSTEE-Derelict-to the Concession-1213-A.D.-covenant[125], et al., did this in the 17th century when the uSofA- nation was being developed. Some of the :revered- figures of the 'forefathers' were :B.A.R.[126]-wicked-man-kind- representatives of the United-States-of-America-1776-1789 A.D. -:DOI-1776-A.D.-TheCftUSofA-1789-A.D. Some five hundred and seventy-plus (570+) recent years from the Concession-1213-A.D. then of the near two-thousand (2000) years now since Rome executed the :Messiah-Yushuah, and :other-members of the Holy-Church[127] to please Satanists, demonists, and anti-Messiahs. Pro 1:4 To give subtilty to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion.
Pro 1:5 A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:
Pro 1:6 To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.
Pro 1:7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.
Pro 1:8 My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:
Pro 1:9 For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.
Pro 1:10 My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.
Pro 1:11 If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:
Pro 1:12 Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, as those that go down into the pit:
Pro 1:13 We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil:
Pro 1:14 Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse:
Pro 1:15 My son, walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path:
Pro 1:16 For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.
Pro 1:17 Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird.
Pro 1:18 And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.
Pro 1:19 So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.
Pro 1:20 Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets:
Pro 1:21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying,
Pro 1:22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?
Pro 1:23 Turn you at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.
Pro 1:24 Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;
Pro 1:25 But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof:
Pro 1:26 I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh;
Pro 1:27 When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you.
Pro 1:28 Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:
Pro 1:29 For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the LORD:
Pro 1:30 They would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof.
Pro 1:31 Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.
Pro 1:32 For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.
Pro 1:33 But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

Mal 3:2 But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap:
Mal 3:3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.
Mal 3:4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years.
Mal 3:5 And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.
Mal 3:6 For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.
Mal 3:7 Even from the days of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye said, Wherein shall we return?
Mal 3:8 Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.
Mal 3:9 Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.
Mal 3:10 Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.
Mal 3:11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.
Mal 3:12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts.
Mal 3:13 Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee?
Mal 3:14 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts?
Mal 3:15 And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered.
Mal 3:16 Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.
Mal 3:17 And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.
Mal 3:18 Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not.

Ysrael- :Concession-1213-A.D.-covenant-people-beneficiary with great specificity and distinction in the early 17th century with annihilation for the extinction unto the enslavement of the covenant- people in the gross -violation by the Roman-Church-: Trustee -fiduciary- duty and obligation to abide the God-Almighty's :unalienable- law, covenants, and rights to the Children of Jacob/Ysrael, et al.- Negro-Ysrael.

Negro-Ysrael FOR :ANNIHILATION AND EXTINCTION –

:i- man believe and declare that the unrepentant- :Roman-Church -:Trustee is the :amalgam-polytheism of :old -who, et al., specifically aided and abetted the targeting and and hunting of the :Negro-Ysrael- people of the inherent -Abraham, et seq.-Messiah- covenants with the Almighty-God, for :annihilation and extinction unto abject enslavement in the United Colonies of America- 1777 A.D.

:TheCftUSofA-1789-1791- A.D. -deprivation of :unalienable- :Almighty-God-given-rights

:i- man believe and declare that :TheCftUSofA-1789-A.D.-Wrong-Doing upon the Negro-Ysrael- people is with the uSofA-people and representatives acceptance of the 'Concession-1213 -A.D.- fraud by the Roman-Church -Trustee -:Dereliction and willful deception to corroborate harm upon the Children of Jacob/ Ysrael, and to undermine the enslaving nations.

Roman-Church is the Mother of Harlots. See KJV-Book: Hosea chap 1-2.

:i- man believe that the UScorp government-provider -Trustee- :man-actors by :naked-demonstration implement the :amoral- structure of :government-policy-practices that was taught by their mother, the :Roman-Church-Trustee -Derelict of the Concession-1213-A.D., to abuse and despise :Negro-Ysrael-people, et al., to wantonly harm the small- captive-minority- population, because, essentially, :Americans were/are taught, and given :great-latitude, to hunt and harm the :Children-of-Jacob-Ysrael, and to corroborate the :same. And,

Despite the fact that the Torah-KJV-Holy-Bible -data has been in their hands of the uSofA-people for :four-hundred- years and with after the ACW-1861-1865-A.D., still :in -evidence in the uSofA-people on EVERY-LEVEL in this instant-matter is this :paternalism, greed, self-righteousness -belief in the uSofA-people's own understanding: liers, truce-breakers, thieves and murderers. Why would :i- man must- need-have to write you- Donald-John for something like is :this-document? – Are All Blindly Enslaved? KJV-Book: Amos chap 4

Amo 4:1 Hear this word, ye kine of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

Amo 4:2 The Lord GOD hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fishhooks.

Amo 4:3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.

Amo 4:4 Come to Bethel, and transgress; at Gilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after three years:

Amo 4:5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free offerings: for this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

Amo 4:6 And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

Amo 4:7 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

Amo 4:8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

Amo 4:9 I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: when your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees increased, the palmerworm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

Amo 4:10 I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

Amo 4:11 I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

Amo 4:12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

Amo 4:13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name.

KJV-Book: Deuteronomy chap 28

Deu 28:1 And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth:

Deu 28:2 And all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God.

Deu 28:3 Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field.

Deu 28:4 Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

Deu 28:5 Blessed shall be thy basket and thy store.

Deu 28:6 Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

Deu 28:7 The LORD shall cause thine enemies that rise up against thee to be smitten before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and flee before thee seven ways.

Deu 28:8 The LORD shall command the blessing upon thee in thy storehouses, and in all that thou settest thine hand unto; and he shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

Deu 28:9 The LORD shall establish thee an holy people unto himself, as he hath sworn unto thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, and walk in his ways.

Deu 28:10 And all people of the earth shall see that thou art called by the name of the LORD; and they shall be afraid of thee.

Deu 28:11 And the LORD shall make thee plenteous in goods, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers to give thee.

Deu 28:12 The LORD shall open unto thee his good treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow.

Deu 28:13 And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:

Deu 28:14 And thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

Deu 28:15 But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee:

Deu 28:16 Cursed shalt thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field.

Deu 28:17 Cursed shall be thy basket and thy store.

Deu 28:19 Cursed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and cursed shalt thou be when thou goest out.
Deu 28:20 The LORD shall send upon thee cursing, vexation, and rebuke, in all that thou settest thine hand unto for to do, until thou be destroyed, and until thou perish quickly; because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast forsaken me.
Deu 28:21 The LORD shall make the pestilence cleave unto thee, until he have consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to possess it.
Deu 28:22 The LORD shall smite thee with a consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with mildew; and they shall pursue thee until thou perish.
Deu 28:23 And thy heaven that is over thy head shall be brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron.
Deu 28:24 The LORD shall make the rain of thy land powder and dust: from heaven shall it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed.
Deu 28:25 The LORD shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them: and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.
Deu 28:26 And thy carcase shall be meat unto all fowls of the air, and unto the beasts of the earth, and no man shall fray them away.
Deu 28:27 The LORD will smite thee with the botch of Egypt, and with the emerods, and with the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed.
Deu 28:28 The LORD shall smite thee with madness, and blindness, and astonishment of heart:
Deu 28:29 And thou shalt grope at noonday, as the blind gropeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and thou shalt be only oppressed and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save thee.
Deu 28:30 Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: thou shalt build an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not gather the grapes thereof.
Deu 28:31 Thine ox shall be slain before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof: thine ass shall be violently taken away from before thy face, and shall not be restored to thee: thy sheep shall be given unto thine enemies, and thou shalt have none to rescue them.
Deu 28:32 Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people, and thine eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day long: and there shall be no might in thine hand.
Deu 28:33 The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou knowest not eat up; and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed alway:
Deu 28:34 So that thou shalt be mad for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.
Deu 28:35 The LORD shall smite thee in the knees, and in the legs, with a sore botch

Deu 28:36 The LORD shall bring thee, and thy king which thou shalt set over thee, unto a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers have known; and there shalt thou serve other gods, wood and stone.
Deu 28:37 And thou shalt become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all nations whither the LORD shall lead thee.
Deu 28:38 Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and shalt gather but little in; for the locust shall consume it.
Deu 28:39 Thou shalt plant vineyards, and dress them, but shalt neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes; for the worms shall eat them.
Deu 28:40 Thou shalt have olive trees throughout all thy coasts, but thou shalt not anoint thyself with the oil; for thine olive shall cast his fruit.
Deu 28:41 Thou shalt beget sons and daughters, but thou shalt not enjoy them; for they shall go into captivity.
Deu 28:42 All thy trees and fruit of thy land shall the locust consume.
Deu 28:43 The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low.
Deu 28:44 He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail.
Deu 28:45 Moreover all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be destroyed; because thou hearkenedst not unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee:
Deu 28:46 And they shall be upon thee for a sign and for a wonder, and upon thy seed for ever.
Deu 28:47 Because thou servedst not the LORD thy God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things;
Deu 28:48 Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies which the LORD shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.
Deu 28:49 The LORD shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand;
Deu 28:50 A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor shew favour to the young:
Deu 28:51 And he shall eat the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed: which also shall not leave thee either corn, wine, or oil, or the increase of thy kine, or flocks of thy sheep, until he have destroyed thee.
Deu 28:52 And he shall besiege thee in all thy gates, until thy high and fenced walls come down, wherein thou trustedst, throughout all thy land: and he shall besiege thee in all thy gates throughout all thy land, which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

daughters, which the LORD thy God hath given thee, in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee:

Deu 28:54 So that the man that is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children which he shall leave:

Deu 28:55 So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he hath nothing left him in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates.

Deu 28:56 The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter,

Deu 28:57 And toward her young one that cometh out from between her feet, and toward her children which she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly in the siege and straitness, wherewith thine enemy shall distress thee in thy gates.

Deu 28:58 If thou wilt not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that thou mayest fear this glorious and fearful name, THE LORD THY GOD;

Deu 28:59 Then the LORD will make thy plagues wonderful, and the plagues of thy seed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and sore sicknesses, and of long continuance.

Deu 28:60 Moreover he will bring upon thee all the diseases of Egypt, which thou wast afraid of; and they shall cleave unto thee.

Deu 28:61 Also every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in the book of this law, them will the LORD bring upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

Deu 28:62 And ye shall be left few in number, whereas ye were as the stars of heaven for multitude; because thou wouldest not obey the voice of the LORD thy God.

Deu 28:63 And it shall come to pass, that as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it.

Deu 28:64 And the LORD shall scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone.

Deu 28:65 And among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest: but the LORD shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind:

Deu 28:66 And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee; and thou shalt fear day and night, and shalt have none assurance of thy life:

Deu 28:67 In the morning thou shalt say, Would God it were even! and at even thou shalt say, Would God it were morning! for the fear of thine heart wherewith thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

KJV-Book: Daniel chap 2

Dan 2:1 And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him.

Dan 2:2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

Dan 2:3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

Dan 2:4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation.

Dan 2:5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

Dan 2:6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

Dan 2:7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

Dan 2:8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

Dan 2:9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

Dan 2:10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

Dan 2:11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

Dan 2:12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

Dan 2:13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

Dan 2:14 Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon:

Dan 2:15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

Dan 2:16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation.
Dan 2:17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions:
Dan 2:18 That they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.
Dan 2:19 Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.
Dan 2:20 Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his:
Dan 2:21 And he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:
Dan 2:22 He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him.
Dan 2:23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.
Dan 2:24 Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.
Dan 2:25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation.
Dan 2:26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?
Dan 2:27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king;
Dan 2:28 But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these;
Dan 2:29 As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.
Dan 2:30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

Dan 2:31 Thou, O king, sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible.
Dan 2:32 This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, Dan 2:33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.
Dan 2:34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.
Dan 2:35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.
Dan 2:36 This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.
Dan 2:37 Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.
Dan 2:38 And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold.
Dan 2:39 And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.
Dan 2:40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.
Dan 2:41 And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.
Dan 2:42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken.
Dan 2:43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.
Dan 2:44 And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.
Dan 2:45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.
Dan 2:46 Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him.
Dan 2:47 The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest

Dan 2:48 Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.

Dan 2:49 Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

Oba 1:1 The vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning Edom; We have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

Oba 1:2 Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised.

Oba 1:3 The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

Oba 1:4 Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD.

Oba 1:5 If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grapegatherers came to thee, would they not leave some grapes?

Oba 1:6 How are the things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden things sought up!

Oba 1:7 All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; they that eat thy bread have laid a wound under thee: there is none understanding in him.

Oba 1:8 Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, even destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?

Oba 1:9 And thy mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

Oba 1:10 For thy violence against thy brother Jacob shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever.

Oba 1:11 In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them.

Oba 1:12 But thou shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

Oba 1:13 Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity;

Oba 1:14 Neither shouldest thou have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldest thou have delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress.
Oba 1:15 For the day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen: as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee: thy reward shall return upon thine own head.
Oba 1:16 For as ye have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually, yea, they shall drink, and they shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.
Oba 1:17 But upon mount Zion shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness; and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.
Oba 1:18 And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau; for the LORD hath spoken it.
Oba 1:19 And they of the south shall possess the mount of Esau; and they of the plain the Philistines: and they shall possess the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria: and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.
Oba 1:20 And the captivity of this host of the children of Israel shall possess that of the Canaanites, even unto Zarephath; and the captivity of Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the south.
Oba 1:21 And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD'S.

Psa 83:1 A Song or Psalm of Asaph. Keep not thou silence, O God: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God.
Psa 83:2 For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult: and they that hate thee have lifted up the head.
Psa 83:3 They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones.
Psa 83:4 They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.
Psa 83:5 For they have consulted together with one consent: they are confederate against thee:
Psa 83:6 The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmaelites; of Moab, and the Hagarenes;
Psa 83:7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; the Philistines with the inhabitants of Tyre;
Psa 83:8 Assur also is joined with them: they have holpen the children of Lot. Selah.
Psa 83:9 Do unto them as unto the Midianites; as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the brook of Kison:
Psa 83:10 Which perished at Endor: they became as dung for the earth.
Psa 83:11 Make their nobles like Oreb, and like Zeeb: yea, all their princes as Zebah, and as Zalmunna:

KJV-Book: Hosea chap 1

Hos 1:1 The word of the LORD that came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.
Hos 1:2 The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD.
Hos 1:3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son.
Hos 1:4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.
Hos 1:5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.
Hos 1:6 And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name Loruhamah: for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; but I will utterly take them away.
Hos 1:7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.
Hos 1:8 Now when she had weaned Loruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son.
Hos 1:9 Then said God, Call his name Loammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.
Hos 1:10 Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.
Hos 1:11 Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

Hos 2:1 Say ye unto your brethren, Ammi; and to your sisters, Ruhamah.
Hos 2:2 Plead with your mother, plead: for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;
Hos 2:3 Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst.
Hos 2:4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms.
Hos 2:5 For their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink.
Hos 2:6 Therefore, behold, I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.
Hos 2:7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now.
Hos 2:8 For she did not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Baal.
Hos 2:9 Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.
Hos 2:10 And now will I discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.
Hos 2:11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.
Hos 2:12 And I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, whereof she hath said, These are my rewards that my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.
Hos 2:13 And I will visit upon her the days of Baalim, wherein she burned incense to them, and she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgat me, saith the LORD.
Hos 2:14 Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her.
Hos 2:15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.
Hos 2:16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me Ishi; and shalt call me no more Baali.
Hos 2:17 For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no

Hos 2:18 And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely.
Hos 2:19 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies.
Hos 2:20 I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness: and thou shalt know the LORD.
Hos 2:21 And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth;
Hos 2:22 And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jezreel.
Hos 2:23 And I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

Purgatory Oath: Lateness Of This Presentment

:I-man Affirm and Declare That The 'lateness Of This Presentment' Is Due To The Lack Of Knowledge And Ignorance Of :i-man; and, the :Trust -resources to afford the cost of this pursuit have been a) administered without authorization and b) used to impose harm and competition against :i-man -:beneficiary, et al.- children of Ysrael.

For the fact that :i-man- Adam, et al.- Judah, have been systematically -systemically -oppressed with the brutality-imposed -ignorance and assurance unto the lack of knowledge from the confederate- usurpers since on or before 1600 A.D. unto now ~2020 A.D.~ with the oversight and support for these and other harms by the Roman-Church -Usurper-Trustee -gross -malfeasance. Thereto, :i- man believe that this presentment is timely through the four centuries upon the historical accounts and recorded facts of the murder-for- annihilation for the extinction[23], and the continued abject- hostility upon :i- man, et al. - members of the House of Ysrael by the :absolute-malfeasance[24] of the pure -obligation[25] by the "Roman -Church", et al.- confederate -:impostors.

death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned: 13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law. 14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come. B) 1 Corinthians– chap.. 15 v 21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. 22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. 23 But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. 24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. 25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. 26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. C) 1 Corinthians– chap.. 15 v 42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: 43 It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: 44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. 45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

D – :Wrong-doing: Roman -Church -Trespassing Upon The :Children -Of -Ysrael

:Roman -Church Fraud

:i- man declare that for the last four-hundred ~400~ years or more that the annihilation with the :murders upon the House of Judah of :Ysrael unto the abject enslavement onto the American-continent, et al.- "Egypt"[26] is commonly known and well documented within the records of the decisions with the violations of the fiduciary -duty and obligation by the :non- Christian -rulers of the Roman -Church -:military -:church -regime until now. See: Magna Carta[27]. – :Thereto, that :fraud vitiates, a) the equation of the fraud is fraud in :fact from the beginning, and, b) Where as, the Roman- Church is established in fraud as an impostor then the any :Roman -Church- :papal- infallibility is merely impossible.

E – Faux- Nobility of :Esau[28] with :Saul[29], et al.- Roman -Church Identity Theft

:i- man know and believe that as :Nothing is new under the sun, so again was Satan's use of the :pagen-rulers of :Rome akin to :King Herod's oppression directly upon the infant -:Yushuah, and unto Rome's, et al's, callous deeds surrounding the immoral :sacrifice of the adult -:Yushuah~ the :lamb of the Most-High-God~; so now-again after nearly :two-thousand~2000~ years ought the Roman -Church, et al., choose life through the :repentance, changing and turning afforded to :all and them by the Messiah -:Yushuah~ Jesus-the-Christ – Almighty-God~, the :lamb of the Most-High-God.

:i- man believe that the faux- nobility amalgam of Saul with Esau, et al.- Roman -Church -:military- :church -regime -:lineage has for many centuries opportunistically and tyrannically promoted :itself to the world with the deception that either bloodline is a) in the line of the succession of the children of Jacob/Ysrael, or, that b) :either has acted in the righteous -keeping of the commandments of the Almighty-God before the billions of :soul- witnesses sojourning on Almighty-God's Earth.

F – Coveting Is Now Fraud

a) :i- man believe that for the coveting of the office of :Jacob~Ysrael that the 'Roman -Church', et al., passes-itself -off/passed-itself -off to the world as the "Holy Church[30].";
b) Both :Esau and :Saul remain complicit in the fraud and are historically unfit to lead the "Holy -Church" as a matter of :common - biblical- knowledge as adjudged by the Almighty-God;
c) The :Roman -Church to day remains unrepentant of the fiduciary-violations with the aiding, abetting, and condoning the continued brutal enslavement- for-annihilation of the 32 :Peter means: KJV- Book: 2 Peter- chap. 1 v 1 Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ: 2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, 3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue: 4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. 5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; 6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; 7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. 8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins. 10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall: 11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

33 :Paul means: KJV- Book: A) Acts- chap. 17 v Act 17:22 Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious. 23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you. 24 God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; 25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; 26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation; 27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us: 28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring. 29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device. 30 And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: 31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. B) Romans:- chap. 1 v Rom 1:1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God, 2 (Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,) 3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh; 4 And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead: 5 By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name: 6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ: 7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

34 :Adam- man- kind by the will of His father means: KJV- Book: Isaiah- chap. 58 – 61; Luke 4:

36 :Kinsman-redeemer means: KJV- Book: A) Exodus-- chap.. 6 v 2 And God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I am the LORD: 3 And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty, but by my name JEHOVAH

was I not known to them. 4 And I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers. 5 And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage; and I have remembered my covenant. 6 Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judgments: 7 And I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. B) Psalms– chap.. 19 v 7 The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple. 8 The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes. 9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether. 10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb. 11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward. 12 Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults. 13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression. 14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer.

Vide 2 Binn. Rep. 382; White's L. C. in Eq.* 60-72. 3. 29 Ibid 19; ':berth-date' means: the 28th day, November, year of our Lord 1958 A.D., in the 244th year of the United States.

Berth: (v.) 1660s, of ships, from berth (n.). Of persons (intransitive), from 1886. Related: Berthed; berthing.

berth (n.) 1620s, "convenient sea room" (both for ships and sailors), of uncertain origin, probably from bear (v.) + abstract noun suffix -th (2) as in strength, health, etc. Original sense is preserved in phrase to give (something or someone) wide berth. Meaning "place on a ship to stow chests, room for sailors" is from 1706; extended to non-nautical situations by 1778.

Date. The designation or indication in an instrument of writing, of the time, and usually of the time and place, when and where it was made. When the place is mentioned in the date of a deed, the law intends, unless the contrary appears, that it was executed at the place of the date. Plowd. 7 b., 31 H. VI. This word is derived from the Latin datum, because when deeds and agreements were written in that language, immediately before the day, month and year in which they were made, was set down, it was usual to put the word datum, given.

2. All writings ought to bear a date, and in some it is indispensable in order to make them valid, as in policies of insurance; but the date in these instruments is not inserted in the body of the writing because as each subscription makes a separate contract, each underwriter sets down the day, month and year he makes his subscription. Marsh. Ins. 336.

3. Deeds, and other writings, when the date is an impossible one, take effect from the time of deliver; the presumption of law is, that the deed was dated on the day it bears date, unless, as just mentioned, the time is impossible; for example, the 32d day of January.

4. The proper way of dating, is to put the day, month, and year of our Lord; the hour need not be mentioned, unless specially required; an instance of which may be taken from the Pennsylvania Act of the 16th June, 1836, sect. 40, which requires the sheriff, on receiving a writ of fieri facias, or other writ of execution, to endorse thereon the day of the month, the year, and the hour of the day whereon he received the same.

5. In public documents, it is usual to give not only the day, the month, and the year of our Lord, but also the year of the United States, when issued by authority of the general government; or of the commonwealth, when issued under its authority. Vide, generally, Bac. Ab. Obligations, C; Com. Dig, Fait, B 3; Cruise, Dig. tit, 32, c. 20, s. 1-6; 1 Burr. 60; 2 Rol. Ab. 27, 1. 22; 13 Vin. Ab. 34; Dane's Ab. Index, h. t. See Almanac.

30 :non-political -:over-standing -aggregate means: the body of people from whom :government is derived; also, :non-actors/citizens in the daily administration of the government service.

RE: Declaration by :i- man -beneficiary -primary-creditor to the Trustee of the 'Emergency Banking Act of 1933' -:indenture to :require/request/demand for the Restoration of :all- :property post-haste with the Accounting provided to :i-man: Darrell-James: Hill, et al. Greetings :Mark, et al.

In the Law, :Sheriffs are the :guardians of the liberty in this republic.

As the appended -document indicates, the 'Emergency Banking Act of 1933' has been completed since 2003 A.D., after 70 years. The :principal-property ought-to-have-been conveyed back at a time no-later-than 2013 A.D.; but, what is a trustee that steals the principal-property? The present :trustee's duty and obligation under his oath-of-office is to the non-competition and absolute protection to the return of :all of the principal-property post-haste. For this reason, :you have been notified.

:i- man request that you assure that this document is noticed by :you, and be placed into the permanent record of the RTCC to aid in the safety of :i- man -civilian in the pursuit to safe-guard against this massive theft of the property from the literally defunct- 'New Deal' -trust of 1933; that the property-held-without-right it will be conveyed- back to The united States of America- ;people.

1 :Emergency Banking Act of 1933, et al. means: Public Law 73-1/ Statutes at Large 48 Stat. 1, et al. - Trading With The Enemy Act, amended ~Subdivision (b) of section 5 of the Act of October 6, 1917 ... to read as follows: During time of war or during any other period of national emergency declared by the President... President my require any person within the United States... engaged in any transaction...be fined... imprisoned..., or both.... Cf. Trading with the Enemy Act of 1917, Pub.L. 65-91, 40 Stat. 411.

Regarding: Stolen Property-claimed and possessed by :i- man, Stolen by the POTUS-Trustee, - POTUSA-CIC, aided and abetted by :you, et al.

Greetings :James-Charles, et al.- generals;

Attached is the ' :Special- Presentment, ~Book 9' sent to the man, :Donald-John- Trump, et al., and with the evidence in the public record of :all of the property-claimed and possessed that :you, et al. have stolen. To do this :you had to first steal the most basic rights given by :Almighty-God; and, to be judged, :this-beloved-nation had to openly acknowledge its' wrong-doing and prefer the :violation of the covenant with the Almighty-God, et seq. The judgment is here now; how severe it will be is still negotiable with :repentance, changing and turning. – Satan is a lier. -

:James-Charles, et al.- generals, Satan has opened a Big door to conquer and humble :you/this nation long before :you/we/i-man were born. :Your, -:my/our -technology cannot stop this because Satan is the opposition and has attained the :legal-right to prevail over :you, :us/our -nation. –:i- man grieve to know this. -

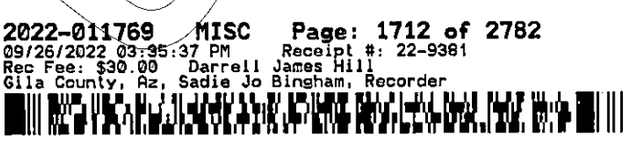
About the gross theft of :property from :i- man by :Donald-John: Trump, et al. -generals.

Consider: One cannot protect :i- man from the theft of the property-claimed and possessed by :i-man from a mere government-services-provider, POTUS-corp.



The Last Hurdle: There is nothing civilized or righteous or acceptable nor justifiable about/for merely stealing the property of :i- man- Darrell-James: Hill, beneficiary- ambassador.

Attached in the 'Book' is the property-claimed and possessed that :i- man, by the Almighty-God's guidance, have often reported to :you for to please restore to :i- man, but you have not abided by your oaths, duties and obligations in this regard over the last several years; thus, :you are :in-dishonor with the POTUS, and with the POTUSA-CIC -over-standing: -outside of the covenant with the Almighty-God.

D – :Wrong-doing: Roman -Church -Trespassing Upon The :Children -Of -Ysrael

:Roman -Church Fraud

:i- man declare that for the last four-hundred ~400~ years or more that the annihilation with the :murders upon the House of Judah of :Ysrael unto the abject enslavement onto the American-continent, et al.- "Egypt"[26] is commonly known and well documented within the records of the decisions with the violations of the fiduciary -duty and obligation by the :non- Christian -rulers of the Roman -Church -:military -:church -regime until now. See: Magna Carta[27]. – :Thereto, that :fraud vitiates, a) the equation of the fraud is fraud in :fact from the beginning, and, b) Where as, the Roman- Church is established in fraud as an impostor then the any :Roman -Church- :papal- infallibility is merely impossible.

E – Faux- Nobility of :Esau[28] with :Saul[29], et al.- Roman -Church Identity Theft

:i- man know and believe that as :Nothing is new under the sun, so again was Satan's use of the :pagen-rulers of :Rome akin to :King Herod's oppression directly upon the infant -:Yushuah, and unto Rome's, et al's, callous deeds surrounding the immoral :sacrifice of the adult -:Yushuah~ the :lamb of the Most-High-God~; so now-again after nearly :two-thousand~2000~ years ought the Roman -Church, et al., choose life through the :repentance, changing and turning afforded to :all and them by the Messiah -:Yushuah~ Jesus-the-Christ – Almighty-God~, the :lamb of the Most-High-God.

:i- man believe that the faux- nobility amalgam of Saul with Esau, et al.- Roman -Church -:military- :church -regime -:lineage has for many centuries opportunistically and tyrannically promoted :itself to the world with the deception that either bloodline is a) in the line of the succession of the children of Jacob/Ysrael, or, that b) :either has acted in the righteous -keeping of the commandments of the Almighty-God before the billions of :soul- witnesses sojourning on Almighty-God's Earth.

F – Coveting Is Now Fraud

a) :i- man believe that for the coveting of the office of :Jacob~Ysrael that the 'Roman -Church', et al., passes-itself -off/passed-itself -off to the world as the "Holy Church[30].";
b) Both :Esau and :Saul remain complicit in the fraud and are historically unfit to lead the "Holy -Church" as a matter of :common - biblical- knowledge as adjudged by the Almighty-God;

31 from the Almighty- God, et seq. means: Ibid. 27

32 :Peter means: KJV- Book: 2 Peter- chap. 1 v 1 Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ: 2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, 3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue: 4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. 5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; 6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; 7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. 8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins. 10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall: 11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

33 :Paul means: KJV- Book: A) Acts- chap. 17 v Act 17:22 Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious. 23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you. 24 God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; 25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; 26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation; 27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us: 28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring. 29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device. 30 And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: 31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. B) Romans:- chap. 1 v Rom 1:1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God, 2 (Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,) 3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh; 4 And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead: 5 By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name: 6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ: 7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

34 :Adam- man- kind by the will of His father means: KJV- Book: Isaiah- chap. 58 – 61; Luke 4:

35 :Kinsman means: KJV- Book: Numbers- chap. 27 v 7 ... ye shall give his inheritance unto his kinsman that is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it: and it shall be unto the children of Israel a statute of judgment, as the LORD commanded Moses.

36 :Kinsman-redeemer means: KJV- Book: A) Exodus~ chap.. 6 v 2 And God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I am the LORD: 3 And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty, but by my name JEHOVAH death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned: 13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law. 14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come. B) 1 Corinthians-- chap.. 15 v 21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. 22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. 23 But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. 24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. 25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. 26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. C) 1 Corinthians-- chap.. 15 v 42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: 43 It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: 44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. 45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

:i- man believe that the faux- nobility amalgam of Saul with Esau, et al.- Roman -Church -:military- :church -regime -:lineage has for many centuries opportunistically and tyrannically promoted :itself to the world with the deception that either bloodline is a) in the line of the succession of the children of Jacob/Ysrael, or, that b) :either has acted in the righteous -keeping of the commandments of the Almighty-God before the billions of :soul- witnesses sojourning on Almighty-God's Earth.

F – Coveting Is Now Fraud

a) :i- man believe that for the coveting of the office of :Jacob~Ysrael that the 'Roman -Church', et al., passes-itself -off/passed-itself -off to the world as the "Holy Church[30].";
b) Both :Esau and :Saul remain complicit in the fraud and are historically unfit to lead the "Holy -Church" as a matter of :common - biblical- knowledge as adjudged by the Almighty-God;
c) The :Roman -Church to day remains unrepentant of the fiduciary-violations with the aiding, abetting, and condoning the continued brutal enslavement- for-annihilation of the

31 from the Almighty- God, et seq. means: Ibid. 27

32 :Peter means: KJV- Book: 2 Peter- chap. 1 v 1 Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ: 2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, 3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue: 4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. 5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; 6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; 7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. 8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins. 10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall: 11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

33 :Paul means: KJV- Book: A) Acts- chap. 17 v Act 17:22 Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious. 23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you. 24 God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; 25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; 26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation; 27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us: 28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring. 29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device. 30 And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: 31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. B) Romans:- chap. 1 v Rom 1:1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God, 2 (Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,) 3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh; 4 And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead: 5 By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name: 6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ: 7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 :Adam- man- kind by the will of His father means: KJV- Book: Isaiah- chap. 58 – 61; Luke 4:

5 :Kinsman means: KJV- Book: Numbers- chap. 27 v 7 ... ye shall give his inheritance unto his kinsman that is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it: and it shall be unto the children of Israel a statute of judgment, as the LORD commanded Moses.

6 :Kinsman-redeemer means: KJV- Book: A) Exodus-- chap.. 6 v 2 And God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I am the LORD: 3 And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty, but by my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them. 4 And I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers. 5 And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage; and I have remembered my covenant. 6 Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judgments: 7 And I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. B) Psalms– chap.. 19 v 7 The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple. 8 The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes. 9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether. 10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb. 11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward. 12 Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults. 13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression. 14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer.

Deuteronomy 15:1 At the end of every seven years thou shalt make a release.
15:2 And this is the manner of the release: Every creditor that lendeth ought unto his neighbour shall release it; he shall not exact it of his neighbour, or of his brother; because it is called the LORD'S release.
15:3 Of a foreigner thou mayest exact it again: but that which is thine with thy brother thine hand shall release;
15:4 Save when there shall be no poor among you; for the LORD shall greatly bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it:
15:5 Only if thou carefully hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all these commandments which I command thee this day.
15:6 For the LORD thy God blesseth thee, as he promised thee: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow; and thou shalt reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over thee.
15:7 If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates in thy land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother:
15:8 But thou shalt open thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth.
15:9 Beware that there be not a thought in thy wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and thine eye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought; and he cry unto the LORD against thee, and it be sin unto thee.
15:10 Thou shalt surely give him, and thine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him: because that for this thing the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thine hand unto.
15:11 For the poor shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land.
15:12 And if thy brother, an Hebrew man, or an Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee.
15:13 And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him go away empty:
15:14 Thou shalt furnish him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy floor, and out of thy winepress: of that wherewith the LORD thy God hath blessed thee thou shalt give unto him.
15:15 And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee: therefore I command thee this thing to day.
15:16 And it shall be, if he say unto thee, I will not go away from thee; because he loveth thee and thine house, because he is well with thee;
15:17 Then thou shalt take an aul, and thrust it through his ear unto the door, and he shall be thy servant for ever. And also unto thy maidservant thou shalt do likewise.

1 :KJV- Book- Leviticus- Chap.: 25 means: Lev 25:38 I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.
25:39 And if thy brother that dwelleth by thee be waxen poor, and be sold unto thee; thou shalt not compel him to serve as a bondservant:
25:40 But as an hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with thee, and shall serve thee unto the year of jubile:

25:43 Thou shalt not rule over him with rigour; but shalt fear thy God.

Deuteronomy 15:1 At the end of every seven years thou shalt make a release.
15:2 And this is the manner of the release: Every creditor that lendeth ought unto his neighbour shall release it; he shall not exact it of his neighbour, or of his brother; because it is called the LORD'S release.
15:3 Of a foreigner thou mayest exact it again: but that which is thine with thy brother thine hand shall release;
15:4 Save when there shall be no poor among you; for the LORD shall greatly bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it:
15:5 Only if thou carefully hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all these commandments which I command thee this day.
15:6 For the LORD thy God blesseth thee, as he promised thee: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow; and thou shalt reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over thee.
15:7 If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates in thy land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother:
15:8 But thou shalt open thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth.
15:9 Beware that there be not a thought in thy wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and thine eye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought; and he cry unto the LORD against thee, and it be sin unto thee.
15:10 Thou shalt surely give him, and thine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him: because that for this thing the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thine hand unto.
15:11 For the poor shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land.
15:12 And if thy brother, an Hebrew man, or an Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee.
15:13 And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him go away empty:
15:14 Thou shalt furnish him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy floor, and out of thy winepress: of that wherewith the LORD thy God hath blessed thee thou shalt give unto him.
15:15 And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee: therefore I command thee this thing to day.
15:16 And it shall be, if he say unto thee, I will not go away from thee; because he loveth thee and thine house, because he is well with thee;
15:17 Then thou shalt take an aul, and thrust it through his ear unto the door, and he shall be thy servant for ever. And also unto thy maidservant thou shalt do likewise.

C. Except as provided in subsection E of this section, the court shall grant an application for deferral of court fees and costs if the applicant establishes by affidavit, including supporting documentation, that the applicant either:
1. Is receiving benefits pursuant to one or more of the following programs:
(a) The temporary assistance for needy families program established by section 403 of title 4 of the social security act as it exists after August 21, 1996.
(b) The food stamp program (7 United States Code sections 2011 through 2029).
2. Is receiving benefits pursuant to the supplemental security income program (42 United States Code sections 1381 through 1385).
3. Has an income that is insufficient or barely sufficient to meet the daily essentials of life and that includes no allotment that could be budgeted for the fees and costs that are required to gain access to the court. In considering insufficient income pursuant to this paragraph, the court may consider the following as evidence of insufficient income:
(a) The applicant has a gross income that as computed on a monthly basis is one hundred fifty percent or less of the current poverty level established by the United States department of health and human services. Gross monthly income includes the applicant's share of community property income.
(b) The applicant's income is considered to be sufficient, but the applicant provides proof of extraordinary expenses, including medical expenses, costs of care for elderly family members or family members with disabilities or other expenses that are deemed extraordinary, that reduce the applicant's gross monthly income to at or below one hundred fifty percent of the current poverty level established by the United States department of health and human services.
D. On proof that the applicant is permanently unable to pay fees or costs, the court shall waive them. For the purposes of this subsection, "permanently unable to pay" means the applicant's income and liquid assets are insufficient or barely sufficient to meet the daily essentials of life and the income and liquid assets are unlikely to change in the foreseeable future.
E. Except in cases of dissolution of marriage, legal separation, annulment or establishment, enforcement or modification of child support, and notwithstanding subsection A of this section or chapter 9, article 4 of this title, if the applicant is an inmate who is confined to a correctional facility operated by the state department of corrections and who initiates a civil action or proceeding, the inmate is responsible for the full payment of actual court fees and costs. On filing the civil action or proceeding, the clerk of the court shall assess and, when monies exist, collect as a partial payment of any court fees and costs required by law a first time payment of twenty percent. Thereafter the state department of corrections shall withhold twenty percent of all deposits into the prisoner's spendable account administered by the department until the actual court fees and costs are collected in full. The state department of corrections shall annually forward any monies withheld to the clerk of the court of each court of jurisdiction before January 31. If a prisoner is released before the full fees and costs are collected, the state department of corrections shall forward the amount of fees and costs collected through the date of the prisoner's release. The clerk of the court of each court of jurisdiction is responsible for sending the state department of corrections a copy of the order mandating the amount of fees and costs to be paid. This subsection does not prohibit an applicant from filing a civil action or proceeding if the applicant is unable to pay the filing fees.

F. At the time an applicant signs and submits the application for deferral to the court, the applicant shall acknowledge under oath and sign a consent to judgment. By signing the consent to judgment, the applicant consents to judgment being entered against the applicant for all fees and costs that are deferred but that remain unpaid after thirty calendar days following the entry of final judgment or order. A consent judgment may be entered against the applicant unless one of the following applies:

1. The applicant has an established schedule of payment in effect and is current with payments.
2. A supplemental application for further deferral or waiver has been filed and is pending.
3. In response to a supplemental application, the court orders that the fees and costs be further deferred or waived.
4. Within twenty days of the date the court denies the supplemental application, the applicant either pays the fees or requests a hearing on the court's final order denying further deferral or waiver. If the applicant requests a hearing, the court shall not enter a consent judgment unless a hearing is held, further deferral or waiver is denied and payment has not been made within the time prescribed by the court.

G. An applicant who is granted a deferral or waiver or a party to the action who knows of any change in the financial circumstances of the applicant shall promptly notify the court of the change in the applicant's financial circumstances during the pendency of the action that affects the applicant's ability to pay court fees and costs. If within ten days after notice and a hearing the court determines that the applicant's financial circumstances have changed and that the applicant no longer meets the eligibility requirements of this section, the court shall order the applicant to pay the deferred or waived fees and costs.

H. The following court fees and costs may be deferred or waived, except that the county shall pay the fees and costs in paragraphs 6 and 7 of this subsection on the granting of an application for deferral or waiver and an applicant who has been granted a deferral shall reimburse the county for the fees and costs in paragraphs 6 and 7 of this subsection:

1. Filing fees.

C. Except as provided in subsection E of this section, the court shall grant an application for deferral of court fees and costs if the applicant establishes by affidavit, including supporting documentation, that the applicant either:
1. Is receiving benefits pursuant to one or more of the following programs:
(a) The temporary assistance for needy families program established by section 403 of title 4 of the social security act as it exists after August 21, 1996.
(b) The food stamp program (7 United States Code sections 2011 through 2029).
2. Is receiving benefits pursuant to the supplemental security income program (42 United States Code sections 1381 through 1385).
3. Has an income that is insufficient or barely sufficient to meet the daily essentials of life and that includes no allotment that could be budgeted for the fees and costs that are required to gain access to the court. In considering insufficient income pursuant to this paragraph, the court may consider the following as evidence of insufficient income:
(a) The applicant has a gross income that as computed on a monthly basis is one hundred fifty percent or less of the current poverty level established by the United States department of health and human services. Gross monthly income includes the applicant's share of community property income.
(b) The applicant's income is considered to be sufficient, but the applicant provides proof of extraordinary expenses, including medical expenses, costs of care for elderly family members or family members with disabilities or other expenses that are deemed extraordinary, that reduce the applicant's gross monthly income to at or below one hundred fifty percent of the current poverty level established by the United States department of health and human services.
D. On proof that the applicant is permanently unable to pay fees or costs, the court shall waive them. For the purposes of this subsection, "permanently unable to pay" means the applicant's income and liquid assets are insufficient or barely sufficient to meet the daily essentials of life and the income and liquid assets are unlikely to change in the foreseeable future.
E. Except in cases of dissolution of marriage, legal separation, annulment or establishment, enforcement or modification of child support, and notwithstanding subsection A of this section or chapter 9, article 4 of this title, if the applicant is an inmate who is confined to a correctional facility operated by the state department of corrections and who initiates a civil action or proceeding, the inmate is responsible for the full payment of actual court fees and costs. On filing the civil action or proceeding, the clerk of the court shall assess and, when monies exist, collect as a partial payment of any court fees and costs required by law a first time payment of twenty percent. Thereafter the state department of corrections shall withhold twenty percent of all deposits into the prisoner's spendable account administered by the department until the actual court fees and costs are collected in full. shall annually forward any monies withheld to the clerk of the court of each court of jurisdiction before January 31. If a prisoner is released before the full fees and costs are collected, the state department of corrections shall forward the amount of fees and costs collected through the date of the prisoner's release. The clerk of the court of each court of jurisdiction is responsible for sending the state department of corrections a copy of the order mandating the amount of fees and costs to be paid. This subsection does not prohibit an applicant from filing a civil action or proceeding if the applicant is unable to pay the filing fees.

F. At the time an applicant signs and submits the application for deferral to the court, the applicant shall acknowledge under oath and sign a consent to judgment. By signing the consent to judgment, the applicant consents to judgment being entered against the applicant for all fees and costs that are deferred but that remain unpaid after thirty calendar days following the entry of final judgment or order. A consent judgment may be entered against the applicant unless one of the following applies:

1. The applicant has an established schedule of payment in effect and is current with payments.
2. A supplemental application for further deferral or waiver has been filed and is pending.
3. In response to a supplemental application, the court orders that the fees and costs be further deferred or waived.
4. Within twenty days of the date the court denies the supplemental application, the applicant either pays the fees or requests a hearing on the court's final order denying further deferral or waiver. If the applicant requests a hearing, the court shall not enter a consent judgment unless a hearing is held, further deferral or waiver is denied and payment has not been made within the time prescribed by the court.

G. An applicant who is granted a deferral or waiver or a party to the action who knows of any change in the financial circumstances of the applicant shall promptly notify the court of the change in the applicant's financial circumstances during the pendency of the action that affects the applicant's ability to pay court fees and costs. If within ten days after notice and a hearing the court determines that the applicant's financial circumstances have changed and that the applicant no longer meets the eligibility requirements of this section, the court shall order the applicant to pay the deferred or waived fees and costs.

H. The following court fees and costs may be deferred or waived, except that the county shall pay the fees and costs in paragraphs 6 and 7 of this subsection on the granting of an application for deferral or waiver and an applicant who has been granted a deferral shall reimburse the county for the fees and costs in paragraphs 6 and 7 of this subsection:

1. Filing fees.

I. If the case is appealed, the initial deferral or waiver remains in effect unless there is a change in the applicant's financial circumstances. If a case is appealed an applicant may be required to submit to the appellate court a new application for a deferral or waiver of the court fees and costs.
J. If a judgment is rendered for court fees and costs, the court fees and costs deferred but unpaid and the expenses paid by the county under this section shall be included in the judgment and shall be paid directly to the clerk of the court by the party against whom the court fees and costs were assessed.
K. A waiver of court fees or costs shall not be granted for:
1. Matters that are filed as class actions pursuant to rule 23 of the Arizona rules of civil procedure.
2. Civil actions other than cases of dissolution of marriage, legal separation, annulment or establishment, enforcement or modification of child support that are filed by persons who at the time of filing the application are incarcerated as a result of a felony conviction in an out-of-state correctional facility or in a jail waiting to be transported to a state department of corrections facility.

a) The :Property theft :in-violation of all-Law exceeds the jurisdiction of the office.

b) The man-actors- Trustees presently :in-office do now administer-agreements implementing harms upon :i- man- beneficiary.

c) The ':voidance of benefit'- scam/policy and/or theft enduring at this autographing daily damages :i- man- beneficiary.

5) This 'voidance of benefit'- scam is overt theft and overt-damage upon :i- man forcing absolute-dereliction unto :i- man's death, which-ever is later.
